STRIKERS REFUSE TO OBEY LEADERS

Defense Committee Proclaims Cessation of Big Strike in Holland

REPUDIATED BY UNIONS

At a Big Mass Meeting the Men Vote to Continue Strike Without Consent.

STRIKERS REFUSE

Amsterdam, April 10.—The Workmen's Defense committee decided today to proclaim a cessation of the general strike at mid-day. The strike was never really effective.

At a monster mass meeting held later in the day the federated trades unions repudiated the action of the Workmen's Defense committee and decided to continue the strike without the consent of the committee. The tumult prevented the members of the defense committee from securing a hearing.

With the exception of the diamond cutters all the men will remain out.

AFTER SOCIALIST SUPPORT.

Berlin, April 10.—An agent of the Dutch strikers is here arranging for German socialist support. The socialist leaders are asking for financial aid and today warn contributors against sending money through the post to Holland, but request them to send contributions to a committee in Berlin, who will forward the sums collected by messenger.

The dock laborers of Bremen and Hamburg have been informed that an effort may be made to divert to German ports cargoes destined to Holland, in which case the Hanseatic harbor unions plan to refuse to handle them.

The Vorwaerts says the mails across Dutch territory are irregular and belated.

ROME AGAIN NORMAL.

Rome, April 10.—All the strikers, with the exception of the compositors, have resumed work and Rome has regained its normal aspect. Many foreigners who left this city temporarily are returning.

THREE MEN KILLED BY GUN EXPLOSION

Fatal Accident Aboard the Battleship Iowa During Target Practice.

Pensacola, Fla., April 10.—A disastrous explosion occurred on the battleship Iowa yesterday while the vessel was at target practice in the gulf. The forward port twelve-inch gun burst from a premature explosion of a shell, twelve feet of the piece outside the turret being demolished. Three men were killed and five injured, two seriously. The dead are:

Kiele, first class seaman.
Percell, ordinary seaman.
Berry, gunner's mate.

The injured:

Gaught, first class seaman.
Thursdale, ordinary seaman.
Brown, ordinary seaman.
Monsdale, ordinary seaman.
Purcker, ordinary seaman.

KILLED WHILE AT MESS.

The men killed and injured were on the second or gun dock at mess. Three pieces of the exploded gun, each weighing over a ton, passed downward through the par deck, falling upon the men at mess, instantly killing the three named. All of the men were horribly mutilated.

The heavy missiles after passing through the gun deck continued down to the third deck, where they came in contact with the armored deck, the heavy steel bringing them to a stop, thus saving the engineers and firemen who were at work below. Although the upper decks were covered with men, no one there was seriously injured.

The explosion occurred just as the mess call had been sounded. Firing was to have ceased after the shot for the dinner hour. The range had been set and the Iowa was steaming along at a speed of twelve knots an hour, when Lieutenant Reed, in charge of the forward twelve-inch turret, gave orders to load and fire. The time fuse was cut for the range, the piece charged, breech closed and the word given to fire.

FRAGMENTS SCATTERED.

Following the report of the gun there was a smothered noise as the shell exploded midway in the gun, and the pieces of the burst gun and shell were scattered broadcast. Three great holes were torn through the deck. Those who were below rushed on deck, some of them bloody and mutilated, while lying on the floor, crushed almost beyond recognition, were the three unfortunate men.

The Massachusetts, six miles distant, was signaled for aid and one of the cutters put off with the surgeon and assistant surgeons.

The injured men were taken to the hospital and their injuries dressed. The dead were brought to Pensacola.

An investigation of the explosion shows that the accident was caused entirely by a defective shell fuse, which, it is stated, burned faster than was calculated. It is understood that the shell exploded fully sixty seconds before it was timed to go off.

An examination of the ship this morning shows that the bursted gun is beyond repair and that the twelve-inch forward turret will have to be repaired. A number of supporters are sprung and it is stated that portions of the deck will have to be replaced where pieces of the heavy gun tore through.

The funeral of the three men who were killed in the accident took place this morning. The dead were buried in the national cemetery here with military honors, companies of bluejackets from all the ships of the squadron participating in the exercises.

It is understood that all of the injured men are almost entirely out of danger except First-Class Seaman Paul Gought, who lost an eye and is in a critical condition. The Iowa steamed into the navy yard this morning at 11 o'clock.

OFFICIAL DISPATCH.

Washington, April 10.—The cipher dispatch received by the navy department last night regarding the explosion of the gun on the Iowa was deciphered this morning. It was from Admiral Higginson and said: "Iowa's breech loading rifle 12-inch gun burst in front of trunnions, three killed, four wounded." Then follows the names given in last night's dispatch. The department expects fuller particulars today.

SCOUT TREATY RUMOR.

Washington, April 10.—No hint of the negotiations are reported in England to be in progress between the governments of the United States and Great Britain relative to British commercial privileges in the Panama canal has yet crossed the Atlantic save in the brief press dispatches of yesterday. The officials here say they know nothing of any such project and point to the fact that there is scarcely a precedent for negotiations on such an important subject, nearly a generation in advance of the probable opening of the canal. It is also suggested that "the most favored nation" clause in the majority of our treaties would make it difficult to confer any privilege of this kind upon England to the exclusion of other powers.

DR. KING WINS HIS SUIT.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 10.—A jury in the circuit court today returned a verdict for $200 in favor of Dr. Geo. W. King in his suit against the General Accident Assurance company, limited, of Perth, Scotland. The trial was sensational, as the defense endeavored to prove that Dr. King was implicated in large insurance swindling operations against various companies.

SPORTING PAPERS MERGED.

New York, April 10.—The Turf, Field and Farm, the oldest paper of its class in existence, having been published over forty years, will discontinue its publication on Saturday. The Sports of the Times has purchased the property and it will be consolidated with that paper. The new owner has taken over the entire editorial and office staff and the leading features of both papers will be continued by Sports of the Times.

WHY MASCAGNI FAILED.

Paris, April 10.—The Temps today publishes an interview with Signor Mascagni, who arrived here yesterday from New York. Mascagni says he was offered large sums for private concerts at clubs and residences in America, but refused the offers, as unworthy of an artist. He attributes much of his misfortune to refusing to take up these private concerts.

STOVE CONCERN IN TROUBLE.

Chicago, April 10.—A receiver was appointed today to take charge of the affairs of the Mississippi Valley Stove company, whose factory is at Fulton, Ill. The company is said to have consented to the entry of judgment for $62,000.

Thomas O'Brien, of Muncie, is the guest of Miss Agnes Passino.

ATTEMPT TO BURN THE NEW DEFENDER

Work of Incendiary Discovered in Herreshoff Shops at Bristol, Conn.

THE RELIANCE IN DANGER

Repetition of Effort Made Two Years Ago to Burn the Constitution.

Bristol, R. I., April 10.—Indications that twice during the last week attempts have been made to burn the Hereshoff boat shops and the new cup defender Reliance have just come to light. The matter was not reported to the police, but extra precautions have been taken to guard the property. Two years ago an attempt was made to burn the boat shops and the yacht Constitution, which was being built and the would-be incendiary was captured and subsequently declared to be insane. It is thought that the present attempts have been due to a similar cause.

Apparently every effort has been made to keep the facts from becoming public. It appears, however, that last Monday evening the watchman at the Hereshoff works found some grease-saturated garments piled near the staging about the Reliance, and on top of the pile was a lighted candle which had burned to within an inch of the refuse. The watchman acted quickly and prevented a fire.

Steps were taken to guard against a recurrence of such an experience but on Tuesday night another pile of refuse was found near the boat. No attempt had been made to fire it. The workmen are of the opinion that the second incident at least was only a matter of carelessness on the part of some one about the shop.

HERE'S A WIFE FOR MR. BARTON

Humane Officer Schlaudroff Has One Applicant for Matrimonial Place.

It will probably be necessary for L. C. Schlaudroff, the well known Fort Wayne humane officer, to add a new department to his official curriculum, and the sign will read: "Matrimonial Matches Made While You Wait."

The position of the humane officer affords unrivalled opportunities for hearing about every variety of human woe and unfortunates have never hesitated to tell him their troubles. Something of a unique departure turned up a few days ago, however. It will be recalled that Obediah Barton, of Clear Lake, Steuben county, who said that he was a "lone widower," with a comfortable home and a cow, wrote the humane officer asking him to secure him a wife.

Mr. Barton's letter was candid and to the point and it got into the newspapers. This morning Mr. Schlaudroff received from Indianapolis the first reply in the form of an application for the position as Mrs. Barton. The writer says she is a widow, thirty-five years of age, with brown hair and gray eyes, and has two children. She explains that she is able to give unquestioned references as to her respectability, and if the arrangements prove mutually satisfactory to herself and Mr. Barton, after further investigation, she is willing to join him in a matrimonial co-partnership.

Mr. Schlaudroff will forward the reply of the Indianapolis woman to the lonely pilgrim on the banks of Clear lake.

ORDERS STEAMER LINE SOLD.

Chicago, April 10.—A decree was entered in the federal court today against the Diamond Jo line of steamers and directing that the property of that company be sold to satisfy a claim of Joy Morton for $296,182. The Diamond Jo line operated four large steamers on the Mississippi river and owns property at Canton and La Grange, Mo., Dubuque, Iowa, and Newport, Minn.

RUSSELL SAGE MUST PAY.

New York, April 10.—Russell Sage has been called upon to pay $40,000 because he made loans at a disadvantage to himself and those he represented as chairman of the finance committee of the German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee company. The payment was ordered by Judge Gildersleeve, of the supreme court, in an action brought by the receiver of the company against Mr. Sage, E. V. Leow, former comptroller of New York, and Charles J. Obermayer, all officers of the finance committee of the company, for $65,000. It is understood Mr. Sage paid $40,000 of the amount and Messrs. Leow and Obermayer the balance. The action was based on allegations that the committee made so many bad loans that the company was compelled to give up business.

WILL APPEAL WAGE LAW SUIT.

Indianapolis, April 10.—Special.—Attorney General Miller said today that the state will appeal the weekly wage law case from the decision of the Indiana supreme court, which declared the act unconstitutional. The attorney general says the case involves the federal as well as the state constitution.

FIRE CAUSES PANIC IN NEW YORK HOTEL

Police Have Time With Ladies Whose Angora Cats Were in Dire Peril.

New York, April 10.—Three hundred guests of the Victoria hotel were routed from bed early today by smoke from a fire nearby, and all the other occupants of the buildings in the block bounded by Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets, Broadway and Fifth avenue, were frightened. In an apartment house at Twenty-sixth street and Fifth avenue there was great excitement, partly due to another fire scare there recently, and the tenants rushed for the elevators. In the Victoria hotel annex were many actors and actresses who crowded out on the fire escapes until assured there was no danger, and in other buildings women were carried down through smoke to safety by policemen. The fire was in a building in Fifth avenue between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets, used as a storage warehouse for paintings and antiques and the damage is estimated at $100,000. One of the smoke-routed tenants in the apartment building was Capt. E. T. Zalinski, inventor of the dynamite gun. He is a cripple and in spite of his objections on account of his desire to save valuable papers, a fireman picked him up in his arms and carried him to the street. On the top floor of the apartment house the police found a woman and her daughter chasing two prize angora cats, each woman holding a basket for carrying the pets. On account of the smoke the women were warned to get out and leave the cats, but they refused and a policeman had to catch the animals and see them and their owners safely to the street.

In the Victoria hotel Charles A. Towne, ex-senator from Minnesota; Tony Pastor and Peter Dailey, the comedian, and his wife, were among those forced to seek safety.

HEAVIEST APRIL WEEK FOR ELLIS ISLAND

Records of Immigration Bureau Broken—Ten Thousand Await Landing

New York, April 10.—The heaviest week that the immigration bureau at Ellis Island has ever had in April and the record ten days for the first part of April, ended today with the landing and shipping to other places of 38,076 immigrants since April 1.

The record of last year for the first ten days of April was 26,789. Today alone there are 10,175 immigrants in port to be landed, of which number it has been arranged to take off today 7,055, leaving 3,120 on board ship to be landed tomorrow.

Commissioner Williams said that there are few immigrants detained and a very small percentage ordered deported. The class arriving is above the average regarding education and cultivation. A large majority of them go at once to the west and northwest.

TENEMENT OWNER HELD.

Philadelphia, April 10.—Israel Isdaner, owner of the Monroe street tenement house in which three lives were lost by fire on Wednesday, was today committed by the coroner to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of criminal neglect. It was shown that Isdaner had failed to provide fire-escapes on the property, as provided by law, and the coroner's jury held him responsible for the death of the tenants.

INQUEST BROKE UP IN A BIG ROW

Inquiry Into the Sanity of Cantrell the Ghoul King Suddenly Ends

BRIBERY CHARGES MADE

Asserted That is Afoot to Railroad Ghoul to Asylum to Save Others.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 10.—An effort to hold an insanity commission on Rufus Cantrell, the negro who is charged with grave-robbing, broke up in a row today. Charges of bribery were openly made by one of the attorneys representing Cantrell. It was also charged that an effort was being made to "railroad" Cantrell to the insane asylum so that he could not appear as a witness against Dr. Alexander, whose trial is set for next week.

When 'Squire Emrich declared the court open and the examination of witnesses would begin, Prosecutor Ruckelshaus protested against the proceedings. He said:

"I have a right to see that no man is railroaded to the insane asylum instead of getting his just dues for crimes committed against the state. I stand here on my rights and I demand that this commission continue the inquest until after the trial of Dr. Alexander."

After listening to arguments of attorneys who claimed to represent Cantrell, the commission granted a continuance to May 4.

GENERAL COURT NEWS

The county commissioners, in session today, were kept pretty busy with ditch matters and this afternoon had not yet got through with the business before them. In the matter of the Little River ditch, now known as the Fast ditch, a joint improvement with Huntington county, M. A. Ferguson, Jasper W. Jones and W. W. Shoaff were appointed viewers. The reviewers on the joint ditch between DeKalb and Allen, against which a remonstrance was filed, submitted a report and the ditch will probably be established.

A remonstrance was filed against the report of the viewers of the Hockemeyer ditch in Jefferson and Milan townships, and reviewers will be appointed, while the Werling ditch in Maumee township was established on the report of the viewers.

A petition was filed for the Richards ditch, in Jefferson township, and Charles Mengerson, John Goeglein and Henry Woebbeking, sr., were appointed viewers.

Ryan ditch, in Jefferson township, Henry Dawkins, Charles Ehinger and George Gronauer appointed viewers.

Anspach ditch, in Maumee township, Thomas Greer, John Rapp and Benjamin J. McIntosh appointed viewers.

Moorman ditch, in Aboit township, Charles Stellhorn, William Schrader and Anthony Bubb appointed viewers.

Lindermuth ditch, in Scipio and Maumee townships, Ralph Schwartz, J. F. Wertz and Safora Snyder appointed viewers.

Roy ditch, in Perry and Washington townships, Gabriel Fair, Michael Fritz and Marcellus Dupont, viewers.

Carroll ditch, in Perry township, Frank Pulver, John McComb and August Tonkel, viewers.

COURT NOTES.

Sheriff Stout delivered Mrs. Lucy Hepner to the Richmond asylum authorities today. He was accompanied by Mrs. Rau, a relative of the patient.

Nora M. Ertel has commenced action in the circuit court against Elizabeth Wines to quiet title.

A civil case titled Cornelius Caruth vs. John E. King has been venued to the circuit court from DeKalb county.

Tomorrow will be the last day of the present term of the circuit court.

Ephraim Grubaugh has commenced proceedings in ejectment against Theodore F. Kress.

SCHIEFER—QUIVEY.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Weaver when their daughter, Miss Florence Evelyn Quivey, was united in marriage to Edgar H. Schiefer, of this city. Rev. J. N. Field was the officiating clergyman and Miss Tillie Lindeman presided at the piano. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the couple took their places before a tasteful arrangement of palms and ferns, and Mendelssohn's Spring song was played through the marriage service. The bride's dress was of Persian blue cloth, with point lace trimmings. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony, the guests at the tables numbering thirty. Both young people are well known, the bride being prominent in musical circles. Miss Carrie Quivey, of Jackson, Mich., and Miss Kelty, of Valparaiso, were guests from out of the city.

REVOLT AGAINST TURKEY.

Salonica, European Turkey, April 10.—The inhabitants of some of the vilalges in the district of Petrich have revolted. A detachment of 350 Turkish troops has been engaged with the insurgents. Reinforcements have left Salonica for the scene of the disturbance.

EXPECT APPEAL TO BE TAKEN VERY SOON

Northern Securities Case to be Hurried to the Supreme Court.

Washington, April 10.—Department of justice officials, while having no authoritative information on the subject, have little doubt that an appeal in the Northern Securities case will be taken to the supreme court very soon. Under the law, the defendants are allowed sixty days in which to appeal, but in view of the fact that counsel for the Securities company have all along worked in harmony with the government in expediting the disposition of the case, it is assumed that this policy will be continued, and the matter brought to the supreme court at the earliest practicable date.

LAMONT'S VIEW OF IT.

New York, April 10.—Daniel S. Lamont, who is one of the directors of the Northern Securities and vice president of the Northern Pacific company, said today that as long as the railroads affected by the United States circuit court decision in the Northern Securities case had never lost their identity, even if the decision were made final by the higher court, little difference would result.

"The same men who own and control Northern Securities, own and control Northern Pacific, Chicago and Quincy and Great Northern. What's the difference? The Northern Securities company simply made it easier for these men to run the roads."

President J. J. Hill, of the Northern Securities company, was at his office today, calling later on J. P. Morgan. Mr. Hill made quite a stay at Mr. Morgan's office, where he conferred with several members of the firm. None of those interested would comment further upon yesterday's decision of the United States circuit court.

TELEPHONE MEN MAY POOL INTERESTS

Fort Wayne Men Will Attend a Meeting at Logansport Next Monday

Independent telephone men in Fort Wayne will send representatives to a meeting to be held at Logansport next Monday having for its object the formation of a close alliance of all independent telephone interests in northern Indiana.

Walter J. Uhl, of Logansport, has issued a call for the meeting, which will be held at the Barnett hotel, and the proposed arrangement will provide for a plan to closely unite not only city systems, but long distance lines in the northern part of the state. It is not to be a merger in the ordinary sense of the term, though a company may be formed to buy out a number of the smaller long-distance lines. The primary object, however, is to bring together an association of interests of such magnitude as will enable the northern Indiana men to secure what is deemed an equitable division of rates with the big interests which now hedge about and control entrance into Indianapolis and other cities. In many cases the present situation amounts to practically a monopoly.

The scope of the territory involved includes the state from Kokomo north, though it is said that only an amicable understanding is contemplated with the National lines entering Fort Wayne, with which the relations of other independent companies are already very friendly. The Electrical Investment company, which practically owns the new plants at Logansport and South Bend, will hold a meeting here Saturday to select a delegate to the Logansport meeting.

GIVES CRUSHING DEFEAT TO MOROS

Captain Pershing's Column is Victorious in Attack on a Stronghold

HUNDRED NATIVES KILLED

Brisk Battle in Which Datto is Slain--But Three of Americans Hurt.

Manila, April 10.—Captain Pershing's force captured Bacolod, Island of Minadnao, Wednesday, killed a hundred Moros and wounded many others. Three Americans were wounded.

Pershing's force consisted of Shaw's battalion, of the Twenty-seventh infantry, Kilpatrick's troop of the Fifteenth cavalry and McNair's battery.

Pershing was surveying the west shore lands when the Bacolodians opposed his advance and provoked the fight. Pershing surrounded and attacked their stronghold, first shelling them and rushing his troops forward charged gallantly. After crossing a deep moat and entering the fort the Americans engaged the Moros, bayonets against krisses. A hundred of the defenders were killed, including the Datto of Panandungan, and many were wounded. Only three Americans were wounded. After the capture of the fort it was destroyed.

The Bacolod leaders and the majority of the people of that district had been hostile to the Americans and encouraged attacks on the American camps. They rejected the tenders of friendship.

It is expected that the defeat of the Bacolodians will result in all the Moros acknowledging American sovereignty.

Pershing's column is going to Marahue, which is also hostile.

WIDENER OFFERS GIFT.

Philadelphia, April 10.—P. A. B. Widener, the capitalist and traction magnate, has offered to the city his entire art collection, providing an art museum is erected at the Green street entrance to Fairmount park. Mr. Widener says, also, that the collection of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wilstach will be added to his. The proposal was made to Mayor Weaver, who says he can see no reason why the project cannot be accomplished.

CITY BREVITIES.

C. W. Lyons, of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Riblet.

Mrs. Fred Todd, of 410 West Superior street, is critically ill from puerperal fever.

Mrs. Fred Wheeler, of Chicago, is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. Boseker, of Brackenridge street.

L. E. Willard, of Defiance, Ohio, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. Miner, of East Lewis street.

Miss Minnie Rosenthal will arrive home from Chicago today, where she has been on an extended visit.

Mrs. J. H. Feichter, of South Broadway, who recently underwent an operation at St. Joseph hospital, has returned to her home.

Miss Florence Charleswood, who recently underwent an operation at Hope hospital, has returned convalescent to her home on Elizabeth street.

alph E. Chapin, of Pittsburg, arrived in the city this morning for a brief visit with his parents, Judge and Mrs. A. A. Chapin.

S. E. Thomas, of Schenectady, N. Y., has taken a position at the electric works and will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gross, of Washington boulevard.

A Stearns bicycle, belonging to a Western Union messenger, was stolen from the Western Union office on Thursday. Manager Perry reported the loss to the police.

Mrs. E. E. Tanner entertained last evening in honor of Mrs. George Wine, of Indianapolis, formerly Mrs. Bessie Young. Music and dancing were features of the evening.

F. H. Ames, who has been making a tour of the western states for several weeks in the interest of the Summit City Soap works, will be home Sunday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of Westminster Presbyterian church will have a sale of home made bread and pastry, eggs, aprons and other Easter articles on Saturday at the church, beginning at 9 o'clock.

The Knott-VanArnam company is now getting its factory into operation, and some product has already been placed upon the market. Something over fifty men are now in the employ of the company, and this number will be increased at once.

MAY BE ALLOWED TO FINISH PAVING JOB

Contractors for Maumee Avenue May Complete That Fretful Work.

There was no meeting of the board of works, all the current business having been disposed of at the special meeting held on Wednesday night. Asked concerning the Maumee avenue pavement this morning Chairman Eggemann said:

"Well, now, I really don't know. They say they will go ahead and put down an absolutely first-class pavement and won't ask for a cent of anybody's money until the city is satisfied that the pavement is all right, and what more can we do?"

"Who is 'they?'" was asked.

"Why, the Kentucky rock fellows, of course. They say they will go to work right away and put down a good pavement and won't ask for pay until it is made right. As to their contract, I don't know. Of course they say that the city might be liable if the contract was taken away from them because we might not be able to prove what the damages were. They've got in a good foundation, you know; yes, their contract was once extended and the time has expired. But, really, I don't know. You see that square will have to be taken up because it's rotten; it has nothing to it. Yes, that will have to be taken up, but they say they'll go to work right away and I guess they'd better be given a chance."

Building permits were issued to F. P. McDonald to build an addition to a house on Calhoun street at a cost position in the law offices of Brown Suttenfield street, $1,100; Victor Huguenard, two houses on Herman street, $875 each.

The city council at Lima, O., this week awarded the contract for paving two streets to the Kentucky Rock Asphalt company.

The finance committee met last evening to examine the annual report of the comptroller.

KING AS STATESMAN.

One of the warmest tributes to King Edward as a monarch came from a cabinet minister, says Harper's Weekly. He is one of the three or four most powerful statesmen in the country. Many think him the most powerful statesman, not only in the country, but in the empire. When she really got to know him he became a particular favorite with Queen Victoria. He has been thrown into the closest relationship, both private and official, with King Edward for the last fifteen years. Personally he dislikes the king. He disliked him when he was prince of Wales; he dislikes him now. He has been known to use some startlingly frank adjectives on the subject. His opinion of King Edward VII. as a king is not therefore influenced by any admiration for him as a man. That makes all the more remarkable his deliberately expressed judgment that "from the day of his accession the king has done perfectly." He went on to say that the king's shrewdness and tact and industry and extraordinary quickness in grasping the point of an argument or a situation had astonished his ministers. He especially praised the king's "manageableness." His majesty has proved far more docile, more willing to surrender his private wishes, less crochety than was Queen Victoria. "He had not made a single mistake;" it was "a pleasure to work with him;" you could always rely "on the right thing being said or done at the right moment in the right way." Above all, he is "a man you can convince;" he gives way with imperturbable good humor when he is satisfied that reasons of state require the surrender of private schemes or inclinations. This is emphatic testimony, but a proof that it was not undeserved was forthcoming at the time of the coronation.

CHRIST'S CRUCIFIXION IS COMMEMORATED

Impressive Services in Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches.

In all the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches of the city today solemn services were held in commemoration of the crucifixion of Christ and the congregations in the different houses of worship where Good Friday was observed were large.

In the Catholic churches the passion was sung, the mass of the presanctified celebrated and the blessing of the new fire and the baptismal font occurred. A most impressive feature of the services was the unveiling of the cross. The image is covered on Passion Sunday and unveiled on Good Friday and kissed by the faithful. At the Cathedral Rev. P. F. Roche was celebrant and the passion was sung by Rev. Bathe, Rev. Dandurand and Rev. Kroll. At St. Patrick's church Father Delaney was assisted by Father Mungovan and Father Laycock, the latter a missionary from Indianapolis. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the way of the cross was celebrated and this evening at 7:30 there will be sermons on the passion in all the churches, Rev. John Noll officiating at the Cathedral and Rev. Laycock at St. Patrick's church.

At Trinity Episcopal church services were held at 9 a. m. and from 12 to 3 p. m., Bishop John Hazen White conducting the passion service during the latter. At 7:30 this evening there will be a confirmation service at Trinity church and Bishop White will administer the rite.

Communion services were held in the German Lutheran churches at 10 o'clock this morning and there will be preaching again at 7:30 this evening. At St. Paul's church this morning Rev. Joeckel, who is on his way to Germantown, Neb., from his late charge in Illinois, occupied the pulpit. In St. John's and Salem Reformed churches there were services at 10 a. m., with preparatory services at 2 p. m. for the communion on Sunday.

At the First Presbyterian and Grace Reformed churches there will be services this evening in preparation for the communion service on Sunday.

ANOTHER BATTLE IN SAN DOMINGO

Revolutionists Repulsed in Engagement Fought Near San Domingo City.

Port-Au-Prince, Hayti, April 10.—Advices received here from San Domingo City say that another engagement between the government forces besieging San Domingo and the revolutionists who are in possession of that city took place April 5. The troops of President Vasquez attacked the revolutionists and were repulsed after severe fighting, during which many men were killed or wounded on both sides. The American, German, Italian and Dutch warships landed marines to protect the consulates of their respective countries. The revolutionary warship Independencia took part in the defense of San Domingo City.

The belief prevails here that the Dominican revolutionists will eventually triumph.

Dispatches received by the Associated Press from San Domingo City April 5 and dated April 1 and 2 reported an engagement April 1 between the forces of President Vasquez and those of the revolutionists at Pajarito, a suburb of San Domingo City, resulting in the revolutionists there being driven into the city, their retreat being covered by the fire of the artillery of the city of San Domingo. The Dominican government gunboat Presidente took part in the engagement of April 1.

ELECTION BOARD IS HELD FOR CONTEMPT

Judge Hanecy Fines Chicago Commissioners for Disobeying Order.

Chicago, April 10.—The members of the board of election commissioners and Clerk Rowell were today adjudged guilty of contempt of court in opening and counting the ballots cast for Lorimer and Durborrow in the Sixth congressional district, in violation of the injunction issued to restrain such action, and were fined $100 each. They refused to pay the fines and an order was entered for their commitment to the county jail. They will remain in the custody of the sheriff until next week, when habeas corpus proceedings will be begun in the supreme court.

MAY LOSE HIS EYE.

William Welling, a well known farmer living near New Haven, will probably lose his right eye as the result of a mishap that occurred yesterday while feeding his cattle. In picking up an armful of corn stalks one of them was forced into the socket of his eye, badly lacerating the ball. Mr. Welling was brought to the city and Dr. R. P. White dressed his injury.

PUMPING AT BALDWIN.

Telephone communication with Baldwin today announced the fact that the new oil well shot there last Thursday commenced pumping at 1:30 today. There was considerable delay in getting the necessary pipe to fit up the well for the purpose of exhausting the water, but it is now all in and actual work on development has commenced. It is yet too early to make any estimate, but the owners hope within forty-eight hours to be able to have a definite idea concerning the approximate capacity of the long hole. Untested indications continue to assure the company that the field is a productive one and that the first venture will prove an unexpected success.

FIVE INJURED IN RIOT IN CHICAGO

Police Charge on Crowd of Italians Fighting Over Late Elections.

A POLICE OFFICER SHOT

Pistols and Knives Used by Frenzied Crowd in the Street Fight

Chicago, April 10.—Lieut. Maurice Moore, of the Twenty-second street police station, and four Italians were wounded by revolver shots in a riot at an early hour today.

The injured:

Lieut. Maurice Moore, Twenty-second street station; shot in right arm.

Frank Vinch, twenty-five years old; shot in leg, five knife wounds in back and head crushed; taken to St. Luke's hospital; may die.

Salvian Barber, twenty-six years old; shot in left leg; taken to the county hospital; serious.

Frank Bronebasen, thirty-one years old; shot in right leg; taken to the county hospital; serious.

Frank Bone, Nineteenth and Clark streets; skull fractured; taken to St. Luke's hospital; serious.

STARTED IN A SALOON.

The trouble started in a saloon. A post-election argument was started and several blows were struck. The crowd, chiefly composed of Italians, then surged out to the sidewalk, where pistols and knives were drawn. When the police and detectives arrived Frank Vinch was found lying unconscious in the street. The others had either scattered or had gone to the floor above the saloon. Lieutenant Moore took half of his men up the stairway, and rapping on the door, ordered those inside to open it. He was greeted by a volley of shots, one of which grazed his head and another entered his right arm. Despite this he drew his revolver with his left hand and with the officers battered down the door.

As the police entered the lamp which had lighted the place was put out, leaving the room in darkness. Another was procured and more than a dozen men were arrested.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

HOHMAN.

Elizabeth Hohman, formerly in the book store of Siemon , died at 11:45 o'clock Thursnight at the home of her sister, rs. Adam Schneider, 907 High street, after an extended illness from tuberculosis.

Miss Hohman's age was 29 years, 7 months and 22 days. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Franz Hohman, both of whom preceded her in death. For ten years Miss Hohman was employed at the Siemon establishment, until forced by failing health to relinquish her place about a year ago. She was a most estimable young lady of rare culture and refinement, and had many friends. The surviving relatives include two brothers and four sisters—Mrs. Adam Schneider, Henry Hohman, the Misses Josephine and Catherine Hohman, of this city; Mrs. Henry Gross and August Hohman, both of Brooklyn, N. Y. The deceased was a member of Trinity English Lutheran church.

HERR.

The remains of Mrs. Izora Herr, wife of George Herr, arrived in the city late this afternoon over the Lake Shore railroad, and were taken to the residence of an uncle, Thomas C. Beals, 1036 Columbia avenue, where the funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment will be at Lindenwood.

Mrs. Herr was formerly a resident of Fort Wayne, and her death occurred at Englewood, Ill., Wednesday night from dropsy. Surviving are the husband, a son and a daughter—Charles Herr and Mrs. Bertha Hanna, at Englewood, Ill. Mrs. Herr was 51 years of age, and during her residence in Fort Wayne her husband was employed as a carpenter by the Pennsylvania company. They removed to Chicago fifteen years ago. Melvin Beals, of this city, is an uncle, and other relatives here are Mrs. I. R. Tolan, Mrs. Geo. Smith, Mrs. Henry Harmeyer, Mrs. John Marriote, Allen Maddox, Dyke Beals and Floyd and Bertha Beals, cousins.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Henderson.—The remains of David Henderson, who died at Erie, Pa., Thursday, will arrive in Fort Wayne at 2 o'clock Saturday morning over the Nickel Plate railroad, and the funeral services will be held from the Grace Reformed church Saturday afternon at 2. Friends may view the remains at the church from 11 to 2 o'clock. The interment will occur at Lindenwood.

Bott—The funeral services of Francis Bott will take place from the residence, 610 Walnut street, Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock and at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's Catholic church.

Bartels—Funeral services of Karl Bartels will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence on the Leo road, near Robison park. Interment at Coldwater cemetery.

PENNELL INQUEST BEGINS IN BUFFALO

It is Now Known Whether the Brother of the Dead Man Will Testify.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 10.—The inquest into the death of Arthur R. Pennell and his wife was begun today before Police Judge Murphy, who conducted the Burdick inquest. Besides the witnesses from the neighborhood of the stone quarry who observed the movements of Pennell and his wife with their automobile on the afternoon of the tragedy and saw them take the fatal plunge, the following named persons have been subpoenaed: Thomas Penny, counsel for Pennell; Wallace Thayer, Arthur Pennell's former friend and counsel, and Pennell's stenographer, Wallace G. Omphalius, who has the stenographic notes of a statement as it was dictated to him by Pennell just previous to his death.

So far as can be learned at this time J. Frederick Pennell, the dead man's brother, has not been served with a subpoena, but one has been prepared for him.

Attorney Thomas Penney said today that he did not know where J. F. Pennell was and that he did not know whether he would be in town in time to testify at the inquest or not. J. F. Pennell, it is understood, has in his possession most of Arthur Pennell's papers, including the sealed instructions which the dead man left to his administrator. If there are any documents in existence bearing on Pennell's financial operations in the east the administrator has them.

It was after 3 o'clock when Judge Murphy took his seat on the bench. The inquest was opened almost immediately.

Dr. E. G. Danzer, the medical examiner, was the first witness. He described his visit to the quarry, where he viewed the body of Pennell. The body, especially the head and face, were horribly mangled. He found no papers of any consequence in the pockets. What was found was turned over to the undertaker at the request of Mr. Penney.

In reply to Attorney Penney he said he did not observe how close the curb was to the edge of the bank or notice how high the curb was at that point. There was nothing between the bank and the curb to prevent a vehicle from going over the cliff.

Mr. Danzer stated that when he arrived at the quarry Mrs. Pennell had already been removed to the hospital.

SUSPECT LITTLE GIRL.

Some months ago it was reported to the police that dining room girls at the Aveline house had periodically missed articles of jewelry, small sums of money and trinkets from their rooms, which petty thievery could not be accounted for. Recently it was decided to resort to strategy and a trap was set. The result was that the robberies are supposed to have been traced to a little girl of ten years, who has done errands about the hotel for her mother. The property has been recovered, but the name of the young culprit is withheld. Lee Ivans has taken renewed hopes of the recovery of his pants and his $50 bill.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

CITY BREVITIES.

Gus Aurentz left today for a visit with friends in Cleveland, Ohio.

Isaac N. Young, of Ligonier, the father of Mrs. W. S. Hehrer, of this city, died Thursday at an advanced age. Mr. Young was a pioneer millwright in northern Indiana. The funeral services will be held at Avilla on Sunday.

Miss Anna Eckart will leave April 25 for an extended tour of Europe in company with Mr. and Mrs. Ober, of Chicago. The ladies are sisters, and will remain abroad until October, spending the greater part of the time at Carlsbad.

GRAMPER.

Grandfather's old an' rheumaticky some,
Thick in his hearin' an' failin' in sight;
Can't chew no more of his bread than the crumb;
But he's a hustler, is gramper, all right.
Up an' a-comin' an' chipper an' gay.
If he can't do a day's work he has found
He can be useful in many's the way—
Fixin' an' patchin' an' putterin' round.

If there's a fence board that's anywhere down,
Gramper's on hand, with a hatchet and nail;
Drives the old mare in the buckboard to town,
Solders the leak in the tin milkin' pail;
Cuts up the early pertaters fer seed;
Sees that the straps in the harness is sound;
Does fer the wimmen folks all that they need—
Fixin' an' patchin' an' putterin' round.

Grandfather's old, but there's lots he can do—
Busiest man on the homestead, you bet!
Done his day's work, but he ain't noways through;
Good for the chores of the eventide yet.
Rest time's a-comin', though; soon he will sleep
Soundly enough in the cemetery ground,
But 'twill be lonesome. We'll miss him a heap—
Fixin' an' patchin' an' putterin' round.

Her Nose.

Marshall P. Wilder was talking to a friend one night just outside Weber & Fields' when two pretty chorus girls halted for a moment beside him.

"You should have seen the way that man we have just passed stared at me," said the prettiest of the two to the humorist.

"He was probably watching your nose. You see, he's a reporter and is supposed to keep his eyes on everything that turns up!" spitefully remarked her companion. Wilder didn't have to say anything that time.—New York Times.

Thought Best to Tell Him.

Mr. Topligh, having come into possession of more money than he could conveniently spend, had hit upon the idea of having a bust of himself made and was negotiating with a sculptor.

"Could you make it heroic size?" he suggested.

"Yes, I can make it that way if you want it," said the sculptor, "but it—er—won't look natural."—Chicago Tribune.

Made to Match.

The fair divorcee, who had been three times married and was now preparing to star, was the center of attraction.

"Her gown is very decollete, don't you think?" some one asked.

"Yes," was the reply; "it's cut that way to match her morals, which are also very decollete."—Chicago Post.

Willing to Follow.

"Let us, therefore," said the wealthy young Sunday school superintendent, "build our houses upon rocks."

"All right," responded a member of the class. "Show us how to get them."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Counter Charge.

Mother—Willie, don't you know it's wicked to steal jam?

Willie—Er—it ain't no worse than tellin' lies, an' you said you wus goin' out this evenin'!—New York Journal.

Quite Fabulous.

"That foreign gentleman is said to have fabulous wealth."

"That's what it is," answered Mr. Cumrox—"fabulous wealth. I don't believe $50 of it is genuine."—Washington Star.

If He Only Could.

Mrs. Noorich—Isn't it grand to ride in your own carriage?

Mr. Noorich—Yes, but I'd enjoy it more if I could stand on the sidewalk and see myself ride by.—Brooklyn Life.

Sadly Cynical.

The Consoler—Your misfortunes are no worse than those that beset other people. Misfortune never comes singly.

Henpecked—Oh, no. It's married, of course.—Yonkers Herald.

The Difference.

"Is he lazy?"

"No. He merely has a wonderful capacity for rest."—San Francisco Town Talk.

Ever Notice It?

Say, have you ever noticed how some folks belie their names,
From Algernon to Zachary and back again to James?
How in the name of common sense such errors happen to Creep into nomenclature baffles me; it's up to you!
There's Algernon, for instance, six feet four, rawboned and stout,
And Bill, a dainty chap, whose mother doesn't know he's out,
And Moses, who is generally anything but meek,
And Mike, who is so timid that he hardly dares to speak;
The infant christened Georgie usually turns out tough,
And Percy in the cradle later on gets good and rough;
Napoleon is nervous and as fussy as a hen,
And Gussie somehow proves to be a leader among men.
It is the same old principle—
Tame's tough and tough is tame,
And we opine with Shakespeare that
There's nothing in a name.

Are Here In All Their Glory.

Don't Forget We are Headquarters for Confirmation and Communion Suits.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend and examine our SUPERB STOCKS AND LEARN THE UNMATCHABLE LOW PRICES which we defy any firm in Northern Indiana to match within 30 per cent.

No fake schemes—no extravagant, expensive trading stamps—nothing but the GREATEST BARGAINS on earth to greet the eye and gladden the hearts of all visitors.

Our preparations for this spring have been made upon a scale unequaled in the surprising history of Wolffs' most successful business career. The mammoth stocks of all new and dependable goods are the results of purchases made months ago, with the knowledge that a general advance in prices would likely occur later in the season. The mastery that SPOT CASH BUYING commands was brought into full play and the results have proven the wisdom of our course. We offer customers today merchandise in every department of our store at fully THIRTY PER CENT LESS than the same goods can be bought for at any retail establishment in Northern Indiana, and fully 15 per cent less than any dealer in Fort Wayne can duplicate them today at wholesale.

These are plain, indisputable facts and a comparison of goods and prices will clearly prove the absolute correctness of our claim.

The feet-washing rite annually performed by the venerable emperor of Austria is a striking ceremony, but it cannot be denied that it has also a practical aspect.

It was a mere coincidence, but President Jim Hill, of the Great Northern, arrived from Europe precisely at the time the merger decision arrived from St. Paul. As a welcome home it must have struck the great railway magnate as of the jarring sort.

The baking powder war has at last got into the hands of District Attorney Folk, of St. Louis, and expectation of things doing rests on good ground. The man who disturbed the boodlers' nest in St. Louis has a straightforward way of getting into matters, and if there has been bribery he will find it. It's his specialty.

Another gun explosion aboard an American battleship has cost several lives. There have been several such catastrophes lately and each of them cost more lives than all the naval operations of the United States during the war with Spain. It is to be admitted that there is always peril where there is gunpowder, but there seems to be rather more of it for the "man behind the gun" than can be considered normal in time of peace.

East Columbia street is not the only district of the city which is disfigured and menaced by unsightly and dangerous old shacks that should be condemned. Calhoun street itself furnishes some examples that call for attention from the city authorities. It may not be legally practicable to get rid of all the old structures that should go, but it is possible to prevent the construction of new eyesores. In this connection it may be mentioned that an inspection made of some of the alleys in the intense-business center of the city will disclose clusters of tottering old sheds and stables that ought to be cleared away. These constitute one of the prime factors in the possibilities of a great conflagration.

THE MERGER DECISION.

The decision of the United States court of appeals upholding the government in the suit against the Northern Securities company may be regarded as the most important judicial deliverance of recent years. The ruling is so sweeping and so distinct that even the lay mind is probably competent to see in it that no compromise has been made with the great issue. The importance of it to the country generally lies not specially in the interdiction of any consolidation of the great railway systems sought to be merged, but in the proclamation of the sufficiency of the Sherman anti-trust law to deal with trusts and combinations in restraint of commerce.

The Sherman law has been on the federal statute books through two entire administrations and during parts of two others. The prosecution of the Northern Securities company is the first distinct achievement under the operation of that law. The case will be appealed to the supreme court of the United States for final decision. While it cannot be foretold that the decision of the court of appeals will be upheld or unmodified in vital particulars, the uncompromising and distinct character of the ruling gives firm ground for the belief that the Sherman law applies not only to the special aspects of the case at issue, but can with equal effect be applied to other combinations and consolidations that purpose monopoly and the restraint of trade.

It is given out that the great battle will be diligently carried through the supreme court and the status of the Sherman law finally fixed by the highest tribunal in the land. After that, if the law be upheld, it will remain to be seen if Attorney General Knox, to whom most credit is given for the victory just achieved, will carry the campaign against the trusts to a logical conclusion.

DEBATING A GOOD OFFER.

New York, April 10.—Fifteen hundred employes of the Manhattan elevated railway held a meeting today to decide upon an answer to the offer of the officials of the company to increase the wages and reduce the hours of the men. The employes are members of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes.

SAY ROAD IS VERY BAD.

Residents west of the city are making complaint of the condition of the Huntington and Liberty Mills gravel road, from the Grand Rapids railroad to the county line. It is stated that the thoroughfare in its present condition is little better than a mud road.

JAIL DELIVERY AT

Lima, Ohio, April 10.—Yesterday afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock, while Chief Mills and his day sergeant were upstairs, Ray Young, held for horse stealing, picked the lock of the city jail and boldly walked out on the streets, making good his escape. The officers did not miss him until the supper hour.

MANY MEMBERS COMING.

Fully fifty Huntington members of the Tribe of Ben Hur will arrive in the city over the Fort Wayne and Southwestern interurban line at 7 o'clock this evening to participate in a meeting of the order in this city. The Huntington degree team is to confer the work upon a number of candidates.

CZARINA IS NOT ILL.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—The report circulated in Paris that the czarina is suffering from peritonitis is untrue. She is in perfect health and leaves here today for Moscow with the czar.

GOOD FRIDAY.

(Written for The Sentinel.)

Today I'll kneel with Magdaline
Beside the cruel tree,
And gaze in mute adoring love
On Him who died for me.

I'll listen while the great drops fall
From bleeding, thorn-crowned head,
And with a contrite heart repent
The sins for which He bled.

For bitter taunts and gibes they hurled,
In mockery and disdain,
I'll grieve, remembering my abuse
Of His most Holy Name.

For all had share in that dread deed,
In Calvary's crime had part:
We drove the nails, we thrust the spear
That pierced His Sacred Heart.

Dear Jesus, pardon once again
The sins of all my years;
With Magdaline I'll give Thee love,
With Peter give Thee tears.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE HAS PROVED A FAILURE

Henry Watterson Says Southern Colored Men are Not Equal to It.

Chicago, April 10.—"After thirty years of observation, experience and reflection—always directed from a sympathetic point of view—I am forced to agree with the secretary of war that negro suffrage is a failure. It is a failure because the southern blacks are not equal to it. It is a failure because the southern whites will not have it."

Colonel Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, in an address at the thirteenth annual dinner of the Hamilton club, of Chicago, in the Auditorium last night, having declared, as above quoted, his belief that the enfranchisement of the colored man has proved a failure, made an eloquent plea "to the republicans of the United States" to use their influence in removing the negro from partisan politics, and thus allow him to yield himself to the evolution of education and gradual development.

WANTS NEGROES LEFT OUT.

"Gentlemen, I appeal to you as republicans, and through you to the republicans of the United States," said the editor, "to have done with the conceit that unless you stand by the black man, that unless you continue him as an issue in partisan politics, injustice will be done him. He has made little progress in the arts of self-government either north or south because of the agitation which has kept him in a state of perpetual excitement with no healthful public opinion to moderate it, and has been made the sport and prey of political exigency, always selfish and with respect to him more or less visionary and heedless."

Five hundred members of the Hamilton club greeted Colonel Watterson with most sincere enthusiasm. He was cheered time and again. On completing his address the banqueters jumped to their feet, waved handkerchiefs and indulged in shouts and hurrahs. His subject was "Peace Between the Sections."

ATTRACTS DEEP ATTENTION.

The speaker's discussion of the negro problem seemed to attract the deepest attention.

"The negro can never become in a beneficent or genuine sense an integral and recognized part of the body politic except through the forces of evolution, which are undoubtedly at work, but which, in the nature of the case, must needs go exceedingly slow. Where there is one negro fit for citizenship there are myriads of negroes wholly unfit. The hothouse process has been tried and it has failed. If, invested with every right enjoyed by the whites, the blacks, gaining in all things else, have brought corruption into the suffrage and discredit upon themselves, is it not a kind of madness further to press artificial methods, which, however justified theoretically from educational look-outs in Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin, fall helpless to the ground in their practical application to the semi-barbarous toilers in the cotton fields and corn lands of Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina?"

"FLY IN OUR OINTMENT."

Colonel Watterson referred to the negro question as "the fly in our ointment." He said he had grown up to regard the institution of slavery "as a monstrous evil." He declared: "With a gray jacket on my back, I abated no part of my abhorrence of it." Yet he fully realized that "the negro could not be suspended like Mohammed's coffin in the nether air." He said he recognized, too, "that he must be made a freeman in fact as well as in name."

"I promptly accepted the three last amendments to the constitution as the treaty of peace between the north and the south, and went to work in good faith to help carry them out."

Branching out from the racial problem, Colonel Waterson continued in this manner:

"Modern invention, which has already annihilated time and space, is surely erasing sectional lines. It ought not to leave so much as a reminiscence of sectional strife.

NEW SECTIONAL SPIRIT.

"If that dread spirit should come again, its evil winds will not blow between the north and south, but between the east and the west; the horns of the dilemma presented by extremism involving a new, irrepressible conflict between capital and labor.

"May that day never come, but in case it does, the conservatism of the north will need the conservatism of the south. The law-loving forces of the north will need the law-breeding instincts of the south. The Americanism of the north will need the Americanism of the south. Then, indeed, shall both sections learn what racial homogeneity means and know for certain that blood is thicker than water."

Colonel Watterson also spoke of "the solid south," saying "it is the fault of the republican party, not of the white people of the southern states that the south is solidly democratic." He declared that "from the death of Lincoln to the advent of McKinley the republican party threw out no friendly signal to the whites of the south." He said: "It was known to the south only through its reconstruction measures, mainly repressive and hostile, and its local agents, generally extreme, too often unclean, employing the negro vote as a simple asset in congress, in republican national conventions and in the field of the federal patronage."

ROOSEVELT A "REBEL."

Colonel Watterson had this to say of President Roosevelt: "The chief magistrate of the United States is half a southerner and all a rebel; God bless him and may the Lord keep him in the path of wisdom and virtue."

In another place the speaker said: "You said by act of congress that the black man should be a white man. You confiscated the debts and the money of the confederacy. But you left in the constitution that fatal double construction to which, along with slavery, we owed all our trouble, and there it is today, so that if I want to take Kentucky and go out of the union there is no statute to hinder me, and though you may make it uncomfortable for me, you cannot find the law to hang me for treason. I beg that you will not be disturbed. I am not going to do it."

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me: I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics, but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills, little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely do make one feel joyful." For sale by all druggists.

ACCUSED OF SCHEME TO POISON FAMILY

David Goodwin, Wayne County Farmer, in Jail at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, April 10.—David Goodwin, a farmer of Wayne county, was placed in jail here last night, charged with an attempt to poison the family of Joseph Meyers, consisting of the latter and his wife and daughter.

Goodwin has a daughter living with John L. Hinton, of this city, and last Sunday he came here to visit her. They took a walk in the afternoon and when they returned Mr. Hinton heard Goodwin instructing the girl to send two boxes of candy to the Meyers family, and also heard the girl expostulate with the father, and tell him he had "put something in the candy." The matter was reported to the police and the candy was submitted to a chemical test and found to contain arsenic. The girl said her father bought the candy and afterwards got some kind of a powder at a drug store and put it on the candy. The Meyers and Goodwin families are neighbors. It is said they have not been friendly. Goodwin denies putting the arsenic on the candy.

REV W. H. DANIEL SUBMITS REPORT

Affairs of Fort Wayne District Submitted to M. E. Conference at Noblesville.

Noblesville, Ind., April 10.—In his report to the North Indiana M. E. conference Rev. W. H. Daniel, presiding elder of the Fort Wayne district, first noted the death of Rev. A. E. Mahin, one of the strongest men in Indiana Methodism, which occurred in Fort Wayne July 10, 1902. Continuing Rev. Daniel announced that some pastoral changes were made in the district. A church costing $4,600 was dedicated at Williamsburg by Dr. W. D. Parr, the pastor being A. J. Carey. A new church costing $3,000 was dedicated at Baker's chapel; the pastor now is George Cocking. Also a new church at Wayne street, Fort Wayne, is practically completed, five blocks from the old church. The name has been changed to the First M. E. church. The work was commenced under H. J. Norris and continued under J. K. Walts. The present valuations, including the parsonage, is $45,000. H. J. Norris was the pastor at the time of the commencement of the work, and J. K. Walts is the present pastor. A frame mission church will also be built, costing $1,000, at Bluffton.

New parsonages were built at Bobo, one costing $800, at Hudson, under M. C. Pettinger. A parsonage, costing $2,400, is building at Ossian, H. J. Lacy, pastor. A new parsonage will be built at Auburn by L. M. Krider.

Improvements have been made and debts paid to the amount of $11,214.

The young people's societies and Sunday schools are in fine condition.

The increase in benevolences over last year was $2,290.

The conversions were 853 and accessions 674.

Rev. Daniel reported that the disciplinary plans for benevolences were carried out.

Rev. J. K. Walts, of Fort Wayne, presided at the educational anniversary session, and the principal speaker was Rev. Dr. McDowell, of New York, secretary of the board. Referring to the Children's Day collections, Dr. McDowell said:

"We have begun a new fight in the interests of our children. One of the new winners has the larger amount of money and the other the ...er number of individua' givers, ... the board does not know just how to give the banner. The church at Elkhart, of which Dr. Light is pastor, in subscribers has won the testimonial. The church at Warsaw, of which Rev. Fred M. Stone was pastor, and now D. H. Guild, leads all the churches in the actual amount of money given on Children's day. That Sunday school, under the terms, must have the first place."

Rev. C. H. Wade moved that one from each district be appointed on church literature and publishing interests. The motion was carried and the following were appointed: J. A. Patterson, C. L. Light, P. R. Parrish, W. W. Kent, W. D. Trout, J. L. Hutchens.

Rev. F. T. Simpson, of the Goshen district, who filled the unexpired term of Rev. B. A. Kemp, deceased, made a verbal report of his district. The salaries were all paid in full except at one charge. The pastors insist in a discipline and a religious paper in every home. The Sunday schools and young people's societies are all in good condition. Brother Guild, of Warsaw, reports $228 for Children's day, and Brother Light, of Elkhart, $200. A new parsonage at Avilla was built by Rev. Wilkinson. Brother Smith built a new parsonage at Mishawaka costing $5,000. Every congregation in the district has a church of its own. The church at Wolf Lake was burned and a new one built, under the paster, Rev. Lincoln Steere.

A petition has reached the bishop and his cabinet from the laymen of the Goshen district requesting that the successor of the late Rev. B. A. Kemp as presiding elder of the Goshen district be a man under fifty years of age. Rev. F. T. Simpson and Rev. C. C. Cissel, both formerly of Fort Wayne, have been mentioned in connection with the vacant presiding eldership.

Preachers are pretty shrewd and generally equal to the occasion. Last night at the lecture, H. C. Smith requested Rev. Hollopeter to ask the ladies to remove their hats. Rev. Hollopeter said Rev. King would do that, as the presiding officer, and Rev. King remarked that the bishop would attend to that when he got to talking. By that time all the ladies had removed their hats.

Much attention is being given by the conference to the project for a Methodist hospital in Indiana, and Rev. W. R. Halstead, who has the work in charge, reported that while $76,000 in subscriptions and $4,000 worth of real estate had been pledged, he believed it would require $200,000 to complete the building. A new committee on hospitals has been named, composed of E. E. Neal, T. M. Guild, C. W. Smith, J. W. Cain and M. E. Nethercut.

Rev. W. D. Parr, of Kokomo, presided Thursday evening at the anniversary of the Church Extension society, and Dr. J. M. King, of Philadelphia, delivered the principal address.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

The anniversary of the surrender of General Lee at Appomattox was celebrated last evening by the Union Veteran Legion in their hall in the Elektron building, and a most pleasing program was rendered. J. C. Peltier presided and made a brief address in opening, after which Miss Grace Palmer played a piano solo. National Commander George W. Spahr of Indianapolis, was one of the principal speakers of the evening, and his address was of a reminiscent nature. Adjt. Gen. B. W. Sullivan, also from Indianapolis; Col. I. B. McDonald, of Columbia City; Congressman J. M. Robinson, Dr. G. B. McGoogan, of this city, and Miss Wolf, who was an army nurse at Cincinnati, also made short addresses. Two notable features of the musical program was a whistling solo by Miss May Herrick and a "bones" solo by Comrade Liggett.

UNKNOWN BARK ASHORE.

Halifax, N. S., April 10.—An unknown bark, with all sail clewed up and no sign of life on board, is reported ashore on the eastern rocks off Scatterie island, on the Cape Breton coast. The bark is apparently of foreign build and of 700 or 800 tons register. Because of the prevalence of a heavy storm it is impossible for craft of any kind to get within reach of the stranded vessel, which is exposed to the full force of the wind and seas. No trace of the crew can be found.

MEET HERE NEXT YEAR.

At the annual convention of the Master Horseshoers, of Indiana, which closed yesterday at Evansville, it was decided to hold the next annual convention in this city. The following officers were elected: George Shaefer, Logansport, president and organizer; William Geary, Fort Wayne, first vice president; William C. Cunningham, Peru, second vice president; William Elmendorf, Evansville, secretary and treasurer; Wallace Lottride, Marion, statistician.

BISHOP WHITE HERE.

Bishop John Hazen White, of the Michigan City Episcopal diocese, is in the city today and this evening will confirm a class at Trinity Episcopal church. Bishop White preached at the three hours' service from 12 to 3 this afternoon.

LIBEL BILL PASSED BY PENNSYLVANIA SENATE

Similar Measure in House is Opposed by Newspapers as Muzzling Act.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 10.—The senate passed finally yesterday the new libel law introduced on Tuesday by Senator Grady. The bill requires that all newspapers published in Pennsylvania shall print in every issue on the editorial page the names of the owner, publisher and managing editor, and if owned by a corporation the names of the officers thereof. In all civil actions which may hereafter be brought against a newspaper, if it shall be shown that the publication complained of resulted from negligence on the part of such owner, proprietor, manager or editor, in the ascertainment of the facts, or in the publication thereof, compensatory damage may be recovered for injuries to business and reputation resulting from such publication, as well as damages for the physical and mental suffering endured by the injured party or parties.

A similar measure is being hurried through the house. It passed second reading yesterday, despite a strong fight made against it. Assemblyman Cooper, of Delaware county, who is an editor, denounced the bill as an effort to muzzle the press of Pennsylvania, and moved its indefinite postponement. His motion was lost; yeas, 65; nays, 106.

The newspapers of the state are bringing great pressure on the members of the legislature not to vote for the bill.

WILL OBSERVE PASSOVER.

The Feast of the Passover, commemorating the redemption of the Israelites from Egypt, when God smote the first born of the oppressors and spared the children of the Jews, who had sprinkled the blood of a sacrificed lamb on their doors, will be celebrated at the Jewish temple beginning tomorrow evening. Rabbi Cohn's subject Sunday morning at 10 o'clock will be "Israel, the World-Messiah." His subject this evening will be "Command and Obedience."

TRUSTEES INSPECT INSTITUTE.

The board of trustees of the I. S. F. M. Y. held its first meeting yesterday since the appointment of J. W. Sale, of Bluffton, to succeed Senator Mull. The board organized with Mr. Sale as president; Mrs. Mary R. Harper, secretary and Ed M. Wilson, treasurer. Plans for the expenditure of the $32,000 appropriated by the legislature were discussed and other minor matters of business received attention. One of the improvements will be the extension of the heating and lighting system.

WAGE ISSUE SETTLED.

Denver, Colo., April 10.—The settlement of the question of wages of the trainmen of the Colorado and Southern road has been effected. Fifteen minutes after General Manager Herbert, of the Colorado and Southern road, went into conference with Vice Grand Master Lee, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and Grand Junior Conductor Shepherd, of the Order of Railway Conductors, the demands of the men had been granted and Mr. Herbert announced that the settlement was very satisfactory. The basis of the agreement is a 12 per cent. increase for freight men and 15 per cent. for passenger men. Today the employes of the Colorado Midland train service will take up the matter of an increase with General Manager Schlacks. They will insist upon the same terms just granted the Colorado and Southern men.

G. W. Reed and Guy Clugston, who have been spending several days in Fort Wayne noting methods in the city schools here, left last evening for their homes.

CROUP

Croup and inflammation of the larynx are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. This never failing prescription of an eminent physician was given the name of ONE MINUTE COUGH CURE because instant relief has always followed its use. It takes effect at the seat of the trouble and acts on the inflamed membranes instead of passing wholly into the stomach and drugging or stupefying the system. Gives relief instantly.

CURED

It destroys the disease germ, clears the phlegm and draws out the inflammation, thus removing the cause and curing permanently. One Minute Cough Cure is perfectly harmless, good for children and they like its taste. Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. An ideal remedy for children. Do not forget the name.

BABY'S FUTURE

Something for Mothers to Think About

Lives of Suffering and Sorrow Averted

And Happiness and Prosperity Assured by

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills When All Else Fails.

Every child born into the world with an inherited or early developed tendency to distressing, disfiguring humours of the skin, scalp and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence, it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest and most effective treatment available, viz., The Cuticura Treatment.

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, gentle applications of Cuticura Ointment, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent, to cool the blood in the severer cases, are all that can be desired for the speedy relief and permanent cure of skin tortured infants and children, and the comfort of worn-out parents.

Millions of women use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands, for annoying irritations and weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves.

GRIT IN THE BEARINGS

How Rheumatism Affects the Human Mechanism.

Grit in the bearings—every engineer knows how important it is to guard against this trouble—to get rid of it, if it comes; so too every one who has to do with machinery of any kind.

The human body is a more marvelous piece of mechanism than any made by hand. Nature does a deal to keep the body in good repair—in good running order. But people make mistakes—some through carelessness, some through ignorance. Nature sometimes needs help.

Uric acid causes Rheumatism—deposited in the muscles and joints, it acts like grit in the bearings—hinders their action, makes pain and trouble. Every sufferer knows how much.

Athlophoros dissolves the Uric acid—aids the body to get rid of it—helps to the restoration of health and strength. It does this with certainty—proven by the experience of many years.

Exchange comfort for pain. If your druggist doesn't keep it send $1 for a bottle to The Athlophoros Co., New Haven, Conn. It will show you how to rid your bearings of the grit.

SOWING THE SEED

of financial success involves the formation of those habits of saving which in later years mature and ripen into riches. With the agriculturist a certain amount of risk must be incurred, but he who deposits in the Fort Wayne Trust Co., does so with a feeling of security that can not be shaken.

THIRD DUNLAP LAD LOCKED UP IN JAIL

With His Brothers He Will be Tried for Theft--News of the Police.

Richard Dunlap, aged nine, the third of the lads who pirated the Broadway candy stores on Thursday morning about 4 o'clock, was arrested last evening and was arraigned at police court this morning. He pleaded guilty to having participated in the raid and was turned over to the probation officer and locked up in the hospital ward of the jail, to be tried in the juvenile court tomorrow by Judge O'Rourke, with the probability of being sent to the reform school.

James O'Neal pleaded guilty to having been drunk and pleaded in extenuation that he is sixty-two years of age and was never in court before in his life and had never been so tipsy before as to attract police attention. He was allowed to go.

James Webb, a train climber, was given an hour to leave town, and Oliver Blystone, charged with having tapped a sewer without a permit, pleaded guilty and was fined $1 and costs. He said that he was not aware that he was doing wrong and had taken up the pipe and cemented up the sewer, leaving everything as he found it. The court held that while that was a mitigating circumstance, it did not remove the offense. The city attorney rebated his fee, which let Mr. Blystone out with a $6 expenditure.

ALLEGED MURDERER TAKEN.

Ed Richards, the man charged with the murder of his brother-in-law, Charles Johns, of Van Wert, at that place on Tuesday night, was arrested at Auburn yesterday by W. B. Wilson, ex-sheriff of Paulding county, at present a railroad detective in the employ of the Lima Northern railroad, and the marshal of Auburn. Sheriff Bickford, of Van Wert, was notified and at once went to Auburn to take charge of the prisoner, who agreed to go back to Van Wert without requisition papers. The two officers and the prisoner came to this city over the Lake Shore road last night at 10:40 and placed their man in the city jail for safekeeping until 7 o'clock this morning, when they left for Van Wert via the Pennsylvania road. Richards was very reticent here concerning the charge against him, confining himself to saying that he knew nothing whatever of the murder, having left Van Wert before it is alleged to have occurred. The Van Wert officers, however, tell a different story and say that Richards left the town on Saturday after having had a row in a saloon, but came back on Tuesday, and that they had positive proof of his guilt, to say nothing of the antemortem statement of Johns, who said that it was Richards who assaulted him.

AN IMPOSTER ABROAD.

Bishop Alerding last evening notified the police department that he had received a letter from a Catholic priest at Defiance, warning him against an imposter named Gould, who had worked upon the Catholics of Defiance to the extent of $200 and then, jumping his board bill, left the city. Gould's scheme is soliciting for a Catholic year book and calendar, which is never published. Bishop Alerding requested that the notice be given as much publicity as possible, so as to warn the people of this city in case the imposter should make an appearance.

POLICE NOTES.

Adam Gorman, a painter, reported that somebody had stolen a sixteen-foot ladder from him on Reed street, where he was engaged in painting several houses. The thieves left the front yard and the well.

Martin Hoffman and Charles Kelsey, two carpenters employed in the construction of several houses on Greely street, near Van Buren, reported that thieves had broken open their tool boxes and stolen a number of bits, chisels, braces, planes, hammers, compasses, etc.

WESSEL CASE TOMORROW.

The trial of Mrs. Louisa Wessel for practicing midwifery without a license, will be held in the municipal court room tomorrow morning, having been postponed two weeks ago to allow defendant's witnesses an opportunity to come into court. The prosecution has summoned a large number of witnesses and a lively contest is looked for. Mayor Berghoff will appear as attorney for the defendant.

WORK IS VERY HANDSOME.

Herbert Bourne, the Fort Wayne sculptor and modeler, has just completed the models for the ornamental stucco work in John H. Bass' suburban residence, Brookside. Otto Blombach, who has the contract for plastering the building, is now engaged with a force of men in setting up the work, which is very elaborate.

Arthur B. Garber, formerly traveling salesman for the Carnahan Shoe company, has taken a position as head of the shoe department of the People's store.

HORRIBLY SCALDED IN ENGINE WRECK

Three Men Lose Life by Plunge of Locomotive Down High Embankment.

Elizabeth, N. J., April 10.—Owing to the spreading of the rails a drill engine on the Central railroad of New Jersey left the track and plunged down a twenty-foot embankment into a pond today. The engineer and fireman and a brakeman were buried under the engine. The brakeman was taken out alive, but died soon after he had been taken to a hospital. The dead are Arthur Bogart, engineer, of South Amboy; ——— Brooks, fireman, of Jersey City; ——— Kling, brakeman, of Elizabeth.

All the victims were married and had families. They were horribly scalded. When the engine went over the embankment Engineer Bogart had hold of the whistle cord and the whistle continued to sound until either the engineer was dead or the steam was exhausted.

ELOPEMENT IS PREVENTED.

St. Louis, Mo., April 10.—"There will be no marriage between my daughter and Harry George Brown," yesterday said Mrs. H. L. Magee, wife of General Superintendent Magee, of the Wabash. This declaration was made following the return of Mrs. Magee and her daughter, Miss Marie Fleming Everest, from California, where Miss Everest and Mr. Brown had made several unsuccessful attempts to elope, but had been frustrated each time.

A license was secured at Santa Barbara, but before a minister could be secured Mrs. Magee is said to have induced her daughter to return to her protection. It was said then that a marriage had been agreed upon to take place in St. Louis, but this it seems now is improbable. Miss Everest is not of age.

MORMON SCORES POLYGAMY.

Kansas City, April 10.—Polygamy was denounced in no uncertain terms by Elder W. Larue, pastor of a Mormon congregation in Philadelphia, at yesterday's session of the annual conference of Latter Day Saints at Independence. "Polygamy debases the race," said Elder Larue, "corrupts the man, degrades the woman. It turns love into lust, men into despots, women into slaves. It is a violation of the eternal laws of our physical and moral nature, a sin against society, a crime against God. Polygamy is the product of a wicked heart and a lustful mind. It is contrary to all law, human and divine." Elder Larue has prepared a resolution denouncing polygamy, which he will introduce in the conference.

WILL MEET AT HUNTINGTON.

(Huntington Herald.)

The meeting of the ministers and teachers of the Fort Wayne District German Lutheran church, will take place in this city Tuesday next and a great many are expected to be present. Over fifty have signified their intention to be here when the convention is brought to order.

CITY BREVITIES.

Mrs. S. C. Moffat has returned from a visit in Richmond.

Miss Solomon, of Ligonier, is visiting friends in the city.

Jerome Stutz is home from Columbus college to spend the vacation.

Miss Mamie Blair is spending a few days with relatives in Lima, Ohio.

Mrs. John Ruhl will be hostess for the Dolly Varden club on April 21st.

Mrs. Dr. Cunningham, of Indianapolis, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Johnson.

Mrs. S. S. Moffett and son, Robert Moffett, of Madison, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Moffat, have returned home.

Earl Henderson, who has been employed at the Indiana Machine works, left today for an extended visit with his brother in Dakota.

Martin Futter, who has been spending several days with friends in the city, left today on his return to the soldiers' home at Marion.

Fred Decker, a boy living on John street, fell off a pile of tiling while at play yesterday and broke his left arm just above the wrist.

Capt. F. F. Boltz, of Bluffton, was in the city last evening. Captain Boltz is to be grand marshal of the Knights Templar parade in this city next Wednesday.

Columbia City Post: Theodore Garty went to Arcola Thursday noon to meet some of the assessors of Allen county. The meeting was for the purpose of striking a uniform valuation on lands that border the county line.

Preparatory services will be held this evening at Grace Reformed church and those who will be received into the church Sunday will be present. Rev. Welker, of Bluffton, has been assisting Rev. Zartman in the meetings during the week and preached several interesting sermons. Rev. Welker is a gifted singer and sang a number of times during the meetings.

MILK TEST SHOWS SUPPLY IS GOOD

Health Commissioner Files an Affidavit Against One Vender of Milk.

Health Commissioner Macbeth yesterday morning instructed the sanitary policemen to bring in samples of milk from the dairy wagons for analysis and as a result forty-two samples were gathered, of which thirty-six were tested during the day. These samples were picked up promiscuously and the drivers had no knowledge of the proposed inspection and therefore could not have been prepared for the official visit.

It should be stated that pure fresh milk shows a specific gravity of about 10.28 to 10.29 and the percentage of butter fat required by the city standard is 3.5 per cent, while the state standard is 3.7 per cent. Skimmed milk being heavier than creamy milk shows a higher gravity, running sometimes as high as 10.32, but the fat percentage is less; watered milk shows a lower gravity and skimmed milk watered frequently runs as low as 10.21 with a corresponding absence of fat.

While the city standard is 3.5 of fat comparisons are made with the state standard of 3.7, but no prosecutions will be made where the samples come up to the city standard. An examination of the record shows that thirty samples show an excess of the state standard, some being very rich and running as high as 5.2; but one was exactly normal and five were below. One of these showed only 2.2 fat and only 10.21 gravity, which indicates that the milk had been skimmed and was fully one-third water. This was in the case of Mrs. Haueisen, against whom an affidavit was immediately filed by the health commissioner and her arrest has been ordered today. As to gravity twelve were found above weight, twenty-one were normal or about normal and five were below. Commissioner Macbeth said that he would not prosecute in cases where the variance was only slight, but would go after all who were much on the wrong side of the test. The analysis for solids and adulterations has not yet been made. Last summer there were a number of surprises for the milk men, but recently no examinations have been made and among the faulty ones found yesterday was a dairy which had been roundly fined last summer for adulteration. Another test will be made—possibly tomorrow and possibly not for a month or two—but whenever it is made the drivers will not be apprised of it. The promiscuous examinations made last summer had a very beneficial effect. Consumers reported that the quality of milk was materially improved, although a great many persons changed milkmen.

TRANSFER IS COMPLETED.

The transfer of the old drug house of Meyer Bros. & Co. to the newly organized stock company, known as the Meyer Brothers company, was completed yesterday. The officers of the company are: J. F. W. Meyer, president; Charles F. Freese, vice president; Arthur Beuke, secretary; G. H. Heine, treasurer. Mr. Beuke, who has been connected with the Fort Wayne Drug company, will resign April 15 to take a place in the store.

Trustee Daugherty, of Washington township, has returned from a five days' trip to the battlefield of Shiloh, where he was in attendance upon the dedicatory ceremonies of the Indiana monuments. He reports having had a most enjoyable time and met many old comrades during his brief visit.

WOULD YOU

Blame Him?

The effect of coffee on brain workers is more injurious than on those who work with their hands, but still the hard physical worker is often seriously hurt with coffee.

A man from Mead, Wash., says: "Coffee drinking had a different effect on my wife than on me; it ruined her nervous system and put her in very bad condition that way. With me my nerves seemed to be all right, but my stomach was disordered and I was suffering from dyspepsia from drinking coffee, so finally we concluded to begin using Postum instead of coffee.

"In a very few days the dizziness and headaches that she had suffered with more or less disappeared and her nerves kept getting better and my dyspepsia left; now I can eat anything. I have noticed that in hard work in the harvest field the days when I used coffee I was not near so strong and vigorous as when I used Postum.

"I have had many chances to prove and have proved that Postum is far and away better for me than coffee, besides, I am well now and while I was using coffee I was half sick." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HON. E. E. WILLARD

Judge of District Court Plainly Speaks His Mind.

It is with pleasure that I give my hearty endorsement to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the most successful remedy that I know of for the weakened condition of the digestive organs which excessive heat or overwork sometimes brings, causing indigestion, sick headache, a disagreeable or bitter taste in the mouth, sleepless nights and a complication of unnatural conditions, making one feel sick all over. Your remedy is scientifically prepared and well calculated to renovate the entire system, cleansing and vitalizing the blood and assisting the stomach to perfect assimilation of the food, which will soon restore health and harmony.

Sincerely yours,

E. E. Willard

Judge of 11th District, Duval County, Florida.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" restores the long lost appetite; it strengthens the weak stomach and corrects the impaired digestion; it promotes the flow of digestive juices and facilitates the assimilation of the life-giving elements of the food into the blood. When the blood is pure and rich, old inert tissues are torn down, carried off and excreted, and new, healthy muscular tissues replace them. In this way it puts on healthy flesh up to the normal weight and fortifies one against all disease-breeding germs. It allays inflammation of the mucous membranes, soothes the cough, facilitates expectoration, and deepens the breathing, supplying the system with a much needed stock of oxygen. It drives out all impurities and disease germs.

$3,000 Forfeit!

Will be cheerfully paid, in lawful money of the United States, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if they cannot show the original statement and signature of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing attesting the superior curative properties of their several medicines, and thus proving the genuineness and reliability of all the multitude of testimonials volunteered by grateful people, in their behalf.

"I feel it my duty to write you as I have received so much benefit from the use of your medicines," says Mrs. E. Sando, of Elon, Iowa. "I was troubled with torpid liver, indigestion, and nervous prostration, for about eighteen months and lost strength so that I was unable to do any work. Consulted several doctors but without receiving help. They advised me to have an operation for gall stone, which I thought would be the very last step I would take. I then sat down and wrote to you for advice, some five or six months ago, and have since been taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Can now say that I am well and able to do all my work, besides doing lots of weaving. In the last two months I have woven about four hundred yards of carpet and feel now that I will keep on with it as I like the weaving business so well. I took only eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

"I will be glad if I can say anything to those who are suffering as I did."

"I was taken sick nine years ago with fever," writes Mr. M. M. Wardwell, of Linwood, Leavenworth Co., Kans. "Had the doctor and he broke up the fever all right, but I took diarrhea right away; he couldn't cure it and it became chronic, and then he gave up the case. I got so weak with it and had piles so badly I couldn't lie down, nor hardly sit up. Was that way two or three months; thought I would 'never be well again,' but picked up one of Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Books one day and saw your description of catarrh of the stomach. I thought it hit my case. We had a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house that was got for mother. You recommend it for catarrh of the stomach, so I began taking it. The one bottle nearly cured me. I got two bottles next time and took one and one-half and was well. I haven't been bothered with diarrhea since."

A FEW PENNIES will pay the expense of mailing Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume.

SLOW-HEALING SORES

Slow healing sores are unsightly, painful and dangerous. They are a constant care and source of anxiety and worry.

Chronic, slow healing sores are frequently the after effects of some long debilitating sickness that leaves the constitution weakened and the blood in a polluted, run down condition, when a scratch, cut, simple boil or bruise, becomes a fearful looking ulcer that grows and spreads, eating deeper and deeper into the flesh in spite of everything that can be done to check its progress. Old people whose blood is below the standard and the circulation sluggish, are often tormented with face sores, and indolent, sickly looking ulcers upon the limbs that give them hardly a moment's rest from pain and worry.

Ordinary sores are liable to become chronic when the blood is too weak to throw off the germs and poisons, and no amount of external treatment will heal them, but they continue to grow worse and worse, and many times terminate in that most horrible of all human maladies, Cancer.

Purify the Blood Heal the Sore.

S. S. S. cures slow healing sores by purifying and invigorating the germ-laden, vitiated blood and purging the system of all corrupt matter, thus striking at the real cause and removing every hindrance to a rapid cure, and this is the only possible way to reach these deeply rooted, dangerous places. S. S. S. strengthens and tones up the circulation, and supplies rich, nutritious blood for the rebuilding of the constitution and healing the sore, when you get rid of the old plague spot for all time.

If you have a slow healing, stubborn sore, write us about it, and our Physicians will advise you without charge.

GREAT DISASTER WAS NARROWLY AVERTED

British Warships in Collision During Late Maneuvers in Mediterranean.

New York, April 10.—News which the British admiralty has seen fit to suppress, says the London representative of the Herald, is just reaching England to the effect that during the recent maneuvers of the Mediterranean fleet a repetition of the disaster by which the Victoria was rammed and sunk by the Camperdown with terrible loss of life was narrowly averted.

It appears that during combined maneuvers the Bulwark, Sir Compton Domilles' flagship, collided with the Formidable. The armor plates of the Formidable were seriously damaged and the cost of dry docking and repairing the ship is stated to be $350,000.

Directly after the collision a notice was placed upon the lower deck of the commander-in-chief's flagship, followed by a similar intimation on the Formidable, forbidding all on board to communicate with any one upon the subject. Members of the crew were further ordered not to allude to the collision in their letters to England.

Both the Bulwark and the Formidable are the latest type of British battleships.

NEW STAMPED ENVELOPES.

Washington, April 10.—The new stamped envelope that has been under preparation in the postoffice department for several months past has been made ready for issue, and is now being distributed to the postoffices throughout the country. The envelope is in four denominations—1 cent, 2 cent, 4 cent and 5 cent. The change made is very great, and, it is believed by the officials who have had the matter in charge, is a great improvement. The stamps on all the envelopes are different shapes. The 1 cent envelope has a green stamp in the form of a perfect circle about an inch in diameter. The bust of Franklin in white is the central figure. The 2 cent stamp is oval in shape. It is a brick red and bears the bust of Washington in white. This stamp is about one and one-fourth by one inch in size. The stamp on the 4 cent envelope is about one and one-fourth inches square, and is brown. It bears the portrait of General Grant in white. The 5 cent stamp is shaped like an ellipse. It is blue, and bears the portrait of Lincoln in white. The portraits on all the stamps are busts, and are embossed on the envelope. The stamps are all larger than those used at present, except the 1 and 5 cent varieties, and have less decoration.

EMINENT MASON DIES.

Lancaster, Pa., April 10.—Major Charles M. Howell, one of the oldest and most prominent Masons in the state, died today from the infirmities incident to old age. He was born in Philadelphia in 1814 and was prominent in his younger days in that city in the volunteer fire department. He was made major of the First regiment artillery of Philadelphia in 1836 and when the buckshot war broke out participated in the disturbance as a member of the Philadelphia Greys. He was the last survivor of the war. He also had the distinction of being the only democrat elected to a county office in this county, having won in a three-cornered contest for county treasurer in 1855. In point of age and membership he was one of the oldest Odd Fellows and Masons in the United States. He served a term as right eminent grand commander of the grand commandery of Pennsylvania, Knights Templar. A number of Masonic bodies in the state bear his name.

A WAR OF UNIONS.

New York, April 10.—The struggle between the warring unions of carpenters was resumed today, the fourth of the strike. Renewed efforts on the part of the Amalgamated union to install its members in the places left vacant by the striking members of the brotherhood were encouraged by the announcement that a second firm of contractors had consented to employ them instead of brotherhood men. The Amalgamated men are coming in from the outlying districts and are being put to work on the big office buildings in process of erection down town. Officials of the brotherhood and of the Civic Federation express a hope that President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, who is coming to New York, will adjust the difficulties of the organizations, both of which are affiliated with the federation.

MOVING TO HUNTINGTON.

(Huntington Democrat.)

Huntington is to have a new carriage and buggy store, repair shop and manufacturing plant. The Baugher Shaft Coupler company, of New Haven, has leased the room in the Harter block of J. F. J. Siegmund and will start a store in a few days. A rubber tiring plant will also be put in and the company will also lease the building formerly occupied by the Comstock Novelty company, where they expect to put in a manufacturing plant some time during the summer, but do not expect to do much in this line this season. Mr. Baugher is in the city arranging the room and will be ready for business in about a week. He carries an excellent recommendation from W. S. Rogers, a business man of New Haven.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

The St. Joseph branch of the Woman's Missionary society of the United Brethren church, in session at Goblesville, elected officers as follows:

President—Mrs. S. Ricker, Peru.

Vice Presidents—Mesdames J. W. Lake, of Fort Wayne, and George Scikafoose, of Buchanan, Mich.

Secretary — Mrs. G. F. Bryer, Warsaw.

Treasurer—Mrs. R. F. Burton, Elkhart.

Delegates to Board Meeting (at Fostoria, Ohio,)—Mesdames J. W. Lake, Fort Wayne; E. E. Lollar, Garrett, and S. Ricker, Peru.

Fraternal Delegate to St. Joseph Conference (Peru, September 17,)—Mrs. E. E. Lollar.

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE WIN.

Goshen, Ind., April 10.—The temperance element of Napanee, which town has been without a saloon since April 2, though previously having two, won another victory yesterday in commissioners' court. The applicants, James Rector and Franklin Grant, were denied licenses, though they were prepared to prove enough removals and withdrawals to destroy the effect of the large remonstrance. The applicants' attorney sought advantage by taking from the auditor's office the withdrawals as filed, but this subterfuge was held to be illegal and defeated the applicants' cause.

ACT OF FARMER'S WIFE.

Nashville, Ind., April 10.—A distressing suicide occurred yesterday near Cleona, seven miles northeast of Nashville. Charles Milnes, a farmer, on returning to his dinner from the field found his wife lying dead in a pool of blood at the side of the bed. She had taken a shotgun from the wall, placed it to her breast and fired, dying instantly. Her clothing was on fire when her husband reached her and was nearly burned from her body. The body was horribly burned. The clothing took fire from the burning powder.

NEGRO MOB WRECKS HALL.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., April 10.—A mob of negroes, numbering nearly fifty, armed with various weapons, assaulted the town hall of Cleves, Ohio, completely demolishing its walls, roof and windows with bowlders, clubs and bullets. A number of young white people were dancing in the hall and several were slightly injured. With drawn revolvers the white men chased the mob away, a running fight through the town following. Many shots were fired. One negro was slightly wounded, but got away. A patrol is preventing an attack of indignant whites on the colored settlement at Coal City.

MAY BE THE FAMOUS HATCHET.

Richmond, Va., April 10.—The house in Fredericksburg occupied by Mary Washington, mother of George Washington, during the revolution and his presidency is being converted into the Mary Washington hospital. In removing a ceiling yesterday a quaintly shaped hatchet was found of ancient type. George Washington was grown before his mother owned the house, however, and there seems little likelihood that this was the famous hatchet connected with the no less famous cherry tree.

GRANTED WAGE INCREASE.

Hoosick Falls, N. Y., April 10.—A 10 per cent. increase in wages has been granted to the 300 or more iron molders and laborers of the Walter A. Wood Mower and Reaper company here. The advance was unsolicited.

THE GREAT CRESCEUS WILL NOT RACE AGAIN

He May Make Trial for Sunol's Record to High Wheeler—To Go to Stud.

New York, April 10.—George Ketcham, owner of the world's champion trotter, Cresceus, 2:02¼, announces that it is probable that the horse will never race again. If Mr. Ketcham does conclude to send the champion another trial, he says, it will be for the purpose of breaking the world's record to high wheel sulky, 2:08¼, held by Sunol.

"There is one other exhibition Cresceus may give and then he will be retired permanently to the stud," said Mr. Ketcham. "I am going to Europe in the fall and will take the horse with me. I may arrange for a big exhibition in London for the benefit of some charity. That will be the last time the champion will ever be exhibited."

AMAZING SUPERSTITION.

Vienna, April 10.—An extraordinary case of superstition has occurred in Hungary. A peasant living at Nosztany died while attending the market in a neighboring town. His relatives started homewards with the body, but were forcibly prevented from traversing the village of Iharis, the inhabitants asserting that the passage of a strange corpse through the place would lead to misfortune. Reinforced by gendarmes the relatives made a second attempt to pass through the village, but were confronted by the entire population, armed with pitchforks and similar weapons. The gendarmes were driven back by the villagers and thereupon fired a volley at the crowd of men, women and children, killing two persons and wounding many others.

YACHTS TO HAVE REAL TRIAL.

Weymouth, England, April 10.—The Shamrocks will have their first real contest tomorrow. It will be under strict racing conditions, with prize money for the winning crew and fixed handicap terms, over a measured thirty-mile course. After the Shamrock III.'s showing yesterday it is believed fifteen minutes will be allowed the older boat. The Shamrock III. has not yet been asked to negotiate a head sea and the likelihood of a seaward breeze tomorrow is welcomed, as it will give an opportunity of seeing how well she will acquit herself under such conditions.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

Moorcroft, Wyo., April 10.—Excitement is running high over the mysterious disappearance of John W. Church and wife, formerly in the Union Pacific general office at Omaha, but who now has a ranch fifty miles south of Gillett. They were last seen on the morning of March 15 by W. C. Clifton at the ranch. Church's mother, from Council Bluffs, has been here to meet him since April 1 and is nearly distracted. Large parties have gone in search of the missing couple. Pending investigation Clifton is being held.

DEADLY GERMS LIVED LONG.

Scipio, Ind., April 10.—Thirty-nine years ago the father of Miss Minnie Peterson died of smallpox. Miss Peterson died of smallpox Wednesday, having taken the disease just two weeks after she opened an old trunk containing her father's clothes for the first time since his death. This is the longest period on record where germs of smallpox have continued deadly. Medical experts have taken a great deal of interest in the case. The state health board is preparing a scientific statement.

NAMES GO TO THE POPE.

Rome, April 10.—The pope today received Monsignor Veccia, secretary of the congregation of the propaganda, who submitted the names of Right Rev. John J. Glennon, coadjutor bishop of Kansas City, Mo., as coadjutor archbishop of St. Louis, Mo., and Right Rev. Henry Moeller, bishop of Columbus, Ohio, as coadjutor archbishop of Cincinnati, Ohio, which the pontiff ratified.

BID FOR BIG RACES.

San Francisco, April 10.—The new California jockey club will, according to the Chronicle, make a bid for prominent stables next season by offering increased purses and stakes. It is not unlikely that there will be several $500 purses every day and a $600, $700 and $1,000 handicap every week. New and valuable stakes are also to be added to the present list.

After half a century spent in the laboratory, crowned with high honors for his many world-famous discoveries, the celebrated physician-

UNCLE REUBEN'S OPINION.

Discoverer of This Magic Compound That Grows Hair in a Single Night.

chemist at the head of the great Altenheim Medical Dispensary has just made the startling announcement that he has produced a compound that grows hair on any bald head. The doctor makes the claim that after experiments, taking years to complete, he has at last reached the goal of his ambition. To the doctor all heads are alike. There are none which cannot be cured by this remarkable remedy. The record of the cures already made is truly marvelous and were it not for the high standing of the great physician and the convincing testimony of thousands of citizens all over the country, it would seem too miraculous to be true.

There can be no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claims, nor can his cures be disputed. He does not ask any man, woman or child to take his or anyone else's word for it, but he stands ready and willing to send free trial packages of this great hair restorative to anyone who writes to him for it, inclosing a 2-cent stamp to prepay postage. In a single night it has started hair to growing on heads bald for years. It has stopped falling hair in one hour. It never fails, no matter what the condition, age or sex. Old men and young men, women and children, all have profited by the free use of this great new discovery. If you are bald, if your hair is falling out, or if your hair, eyebrows or eyelashes are thin or short, write the Altenheim Medical Dispensary, 9123 Foso Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, inclosing a 2-cent stamp to prepay postage, for a free package and in a short time you will be entirely restored.

WHAT CAUSES DANDRUFF.

Greatest European Authority on Skin Diseases, Says It's a Germ.

The old idea was that dandruff is scales of skin thrown off, through a feverish condition of the scalp, is exploded. Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says dandruff is a germ disease. The germ burrows under the scalp, throwing up little scales of cuticle, and sapping the vitality of the hair at the root. The only hair preparation that kills dandruff germs is Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Not only cures dandruff, but stops falling hair and causes a luxuriant growth. Delightful hair dressing.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

Justice Skelton this afternoon got through with a three-days' siege with the Nestle-Behrman-Edsall suits and when he rounded up his docket he fined Mrs. Henrietta Nestle $1 and costs for assault and battery on Mrs. Behrman, acquitted Mrs. Behrman of provoking Mrs. Nestle, fined Mrs. Louisa Edsall for provoking Mrs. Nestle on one day and acquitted her of provoking her on another. Both fines were paid and peace in the neighborhood has been restored. But this is not all that Justice Skelton did. Yesterday morning he opened his official record for the day by marrying Isaac Lesh and Martha J. Collier, aged seventy-two and fifty, respectively, the oldest couple he ever united, and last evening late he closed court by marrying Charles F. Valentine and Bessie M. Gross, aged seventeen years each, the youngest couple he ever married.

AMERICA'S CUP RACES

Preparations Promise Great Fight Between Giant Sloops.

SHAMROCK III. FORMIDABLE.

Sir Thomas Lipton's New Challenger Will Give Uncle Sam a Scare—The Defender Is a Marvel of Beauty In Construction.

All indications point to a most interesting and thrilling contest for the America's cup during the coming summer.

In rushing the work on the new defender Managing Owner C. Oliver Iselin and his associates in the American syndicate showed a realization of the fact that the Britishers are putting forth every effort to fasten their grapnels on the great international trophy. The early launching date guarantees the defender Reliance ample time for a try out, thus avoiding a repetition of the unfortunate imbroglio of two years ago which resulted in the laying up of Constitution at the last minute and the choosing of Columbia as the opponent of Shamrock II.

On the other side of the Atlantic Sir Thomas Lipton and "Will Fife of Fairlie" are perfecting what impartial experts consider the most formidable craft that was ever designed to lift the cup. Shamrock III. is the premier of the trio of Shamrocks built by the titled tea merchant beyond all doubt, and from the cabled descriptions of her lines, above and below the water line, she will give self confident Uncle Sam the scare of his life.

An inspection of the defender at the Herreshoffs', at Bristol, R. I., reveals her to be a marvel of beauty in regard to lines and construction; that, while her frames and ribs are heavier than usual, the shell is lighter; that the frames of nickel steel are stronger than in any other racing boat the Herreshoffs have built; that the shell is the lightest on record except that of Defender, and that her mast of nickel steel plates is the strongest spar that the Herreshoffs have ever turned out.

The deck itself is of aluminium three-sixteenths of an inch in thickness. This decking, of course, would be too slippery for sailormen to hold on to with their feet, so a sprinkling of cork dust on a layer of white lead has simplified the action of human sea legs.

One of the most noticeable features about the new craft is the generous use of Tobin bronze. This strenuous metal is used for the underbody of the boat. It entirely covers the lead for the keel and composes also the sheathing for the craft far above the water line.

The mast is about completed, and the nickel steel for a duplicate mast is being got in readiness for the work of construction. The sailmakers in Hathaway's loft are working overtime. Thus the work goes bravely along.

The interior is of the flimsiest possible construction, and the skylights and companionways are as light as discretion will permit. The rigging, both standing and running, is in hand, so that immediately after the launch all the necessary equipments of spars, rigging and sails can quickly be assembled, put into place immediately and the yacht got ready for her maiden trip.

The defender is as splendid a racing machine as ever gladdened a yachtsman's heart. She is much more imposing, so far as mere size is concerned, than any single masted yacht ever turned out from any shipyard in the world; more graceful, too, in her clean run, the easy turn of her bilge, the evolution of that wondrous spoon bow, which made itself manifest first in the incomparable Gloriosa, never beaten, next in Wasp, furthermore in Vigilant, Defender, Columbia and Constitution, and this last triumphant in the new boat.

The lead fin keel is covered with a burnished plating of Tobin bronze, of which metal the sheathing of the craft far above the water line is composed. This metal has been manufactured especially for the new boat. When burnished, it gleams like Australian gold

CAPTAIN CHARLEY BARR.

[Barr will be the skipper of the new defender. He is a Scotchman and the greatest yacht racer of recent years.]

fresh from the diggings. It is only twenty-two hundredths of an inch in thickness, but it has greater tensile and torsional strength than any metal of its thickness except nickel steel.

The mast is 110 feet from step to head. It is made of plates of nickel steel. Its diameter is twenty-six inches. It is strengthened by ten bulb angled stiffeners made of solid nickel steel 2½ by 2 inches, the whole making a cylindrical tube that a man of moderate girth measurement could crawl through.

It must be interesting to the mathematicians who measure sail areas to know that the distance from the center of the mast to the stem is fifty feet; that the distance from the center of the mast to the taffrail is 80 feet 4 inches.

The boom of the new craft is 114 feet long, four feet longer than Columbia's. It is strengthened by ten flange plates to stiffen it. The booms of the Constitution and the Columbia buckled in ordinary weather. The new craft's should not buckle. The beams that support the deck are of nickel plate. The usual steel strut to strengthen the mast appears in the new boat. It is of nickel steel. It is used as a spreader to give strength and endurance to the forestay, which sets up to a deck plate of immense strength, modeled in a measure to correspond with the bridge building work of the step of the mast.

There are just twenty-one tons of bronze plating used on the hull of the

CAPTAIN BOB WRINGE.

[Wringe will sail Shamrock III. in the coming cup races.]

new craft. On Constitution the plating weighed twenty-three tons, on Columbia twenty-four tons. The weight of lead in the new boat is 102 tons, eight tons less than the ballast in Constitution and twelve tons more than in Columbia.

The new boat has more beam than Constitution by thirty-two inches, and sixteen inches more beam than Columbia had.

The sensational feature of Shamrock III.'s construction lies in her fin keel, which is but twenty feet long, whereas thirty-five feet has heretofore been considered the shortest length compatible with satisfactory results. This innovation, which will make her phenomenally quick in stays, means that the challenger must be perfectly designed in order to balance the 130 feet of hull over this short mass of metal. Mr. Fife considers Columbia's success to have been due to this perfect balance. If Shamrock III. proves to be equally well proportioned, her remarkably short keel will enable her to spin like a top every time she goes about.

That new feature is considered by competent judges to be the boldest sort of an experiment and certain to provide a marvelously fast boat if she will sail at all.

The Cyclers

Jimmy Michael, the Welsh midget, is training behind motors in Europe and will return to this country to race during the summer.

Bobby Walthour is to be the owner-manager of a new cycling track at Atlanta, Ga., his home.

The cycling grand circuit will be larger this year than ever before.

Cyclist George H. Collett of New Haven, the third rider in the championship table of last season, recently signed a contract for five races in Europe. Collett will ride at the Buffalo track, near Paris, and at Berlin, Copenhagen and Rome. He sailed a short time ago and will finish his tour about May 15.

Major League Openings.

In the American league the schedule opens with Philadelphia playing in Boston and the Washington team in New York. The Nationals open with Boston at Philadelphia and Chicago at St. Louis. Both leagues close either Sept. 25 or 28.

The rival clubs in Chicago, where enthusiasm is always at fever heat, will play a series of games in the Windy City before the official season opens. The dates will be April 11, 12 and 14. These matches are to be part of a series of fifteen games for the championship of Chicago.

Fred Taral's Son a "Jock."

"Like father, like son," is just as applicable to Fred Taral, the jockey, and his son John as it is to other persons. If there are any doubts on the subject, Johnny will dispel them this year by emulating his father's deeds on the turf. He started in as a jockey recently in Vienna. Johnny is thirteen years old and weighs fifty-five pounds. The fact that he is thirteen years old fails to deter Johnny from riding. He does not believe in "hoodoo" figures. He is courageous and ambitious to shine as the leading jockey of the world.

Geers Has a Big Stable.

In addition to the Village farm horses, Ed Geers has thirty-five head of outside animals in his stable. He can be expected to sift out half a dozen pretty fair ones from this aggregation.

Keeler Begins Work.

Billy Keeler has started in for light training. His injured arm is mending rapidly, and he promises to be right when the bell taps for the start.

McGraw to Play.

John ("Mugsy") McGraw announces that he will play in New York's infield the coming season.

TROLLEYS BEAT STEAM ROADS.

The statement is made that in Massachusetts last year four times as many passengers were carried by electric cars as on the steam roads, says the Iron Age. Of course, that was due chiefly to the dense city traffic, but still the city street car systems were pretty complete seven years ago. The trolley passenger business, however, has doubled since that time, while the steam passenger business has actually declined.

Narrow Escape Of Bill Henderson

The citizens of Panther Hill had turned out to a man to hang Bill Henderson for the murder of Joe Davis. The pair had been off in the thickets together, and only Bill had returned, and he had not told a straight story. Bill had protested his innocence, but it was no go. The barrel was about to be kicked from under him when there was a great hurrah up the street, and next moment the supposed murdered man was in the midst of the crowd, shouting:

"I am alive! I stand before you! Do not hang an innocent man!"

For three or four minutes the dramatic effect was all that could be hoped for. Then some one sung out:

"Boys, we can't hang nobody fur murder, but we kin hev sum fun with the kuss who orter bin murdered, but wasn't!"

They got an empty pork barrel and headed the "victim" up in it and rolled him up and down hill for a good long hour. He was too weak to do any talking for several hours after they let up, but that evening when he was asked if he still favored dramatic effects he sorrowfully replied:

"I don't think I do. I thought they related to hangin's, but I find they mean pork bar'ls, and durn my hide if I don't let high flown language alone arter this and know what I'm sayin'!"

Business Notice.

Quite Simple.

"It's very easy to turn out these bits of concentrated wisdom that are all the rage."

"It is?"

"Why, certainly. All you've got to do is to make the matter confusing enough and you go down to fame as a wise and witty man. BRAIN IN MEN AND WOMEN.

Results of investigations of the weight of the brain in 1,234 cases show that its maximum weight was reached in males at about the 19th or 20th year, and in females from the 16th to the 18th year. The diminution in the mean weight of the brain which is due to the approach of senile decay occurs in males in the course of the eighth decade and in females of the seventh, though great individual differences are observable. In adults there is no constant relation between body weight and brain weight. Still, the mean weight of the brain in males of short stature (from 150 to 160 centimeters) is less than in those of average height, and the same holds good for women under 145 centimeters. The smaller size of the brain in women is not dependent on the lower stature, for the mean weight of the brain in women is without exception smaller than that of males of equal height.—Greenock (Scotland) Telegraph.

THE CRITICAL PERIODS IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

Are When the Change Comes from Childhood to Womanhood and Later When the Organs of the Pelvic Region Cease Their Work.

Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills

By Their Power to Make Good Rich, Red, Oxygen Carrying Blood Insures the Proper Nourishing of Every Tissue, Every Organ in the Body and an Absolute Immunity from Disease.

A NERVE TONIC NEVER EQUALED

THIS SHAPED BOX - NO OTHER

When the child changes from girlhood to womanhood and again later in life when the organs of the pelvic regions cease their work, there is a strain thrown upon the nervous system, that requires outside aid that there may be supplied a proper amount of additional strength and resistive power. This the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills do to a certainty by their ability to supply to the nervous system and organs afflicted, an amount of nerve strength and energy that enables them to accommodate themselves rapidly and easily to the changes taking place.

BUFFALO, N. Y.

Mrs. Julia Rowland, of No. 264 Pearl St., Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Both myself and daughter, age 17, are deeply indebted to Dr. A. W. Chase and his Nerve Pills. They certainly are a grand tonic to the nerves. I used them about a year ago, to give me the strength and vitality to go through the ordeal that usually comes to woman at change of life, and found all the nervousness, crying spells and weakness disappear in a hurry. This led me to give them to my daughter about the time she began to have the endless trouble some young girls do in early life, and the medicine acted equally as well with her. She grew strong and steady—the color became good—the languor and lassitude disappeared and she was able to go about her school duties as usual. I consider the Dr. A. Chase Nerve Pills unequaled as a nerve and general tonic in such cases and gladly recommend them to others who suffer in a similar manner."

Easy to Polish a Stove

EASILY APPLIED—NO ODOR—NO DIRT.

To polish a stove like peppering a beefsteak may seem odd to those who have never used Sifter Stove Polish, but nevertheless, it is the newest, easiest and most convenient method known. Sifter Stove Polish is put up in a large, round box with a perforated top similar to a pepper box. The polish never dries out and does not require soaking in water before using. There is never any waste. It is good to the last pinch. It is gently sifted on the stove, brushed with a damp cloth and lightly rubbed with a dry cloth. A brilliant, jet black lustre is obtained. There is no odor, no dirty saucers or pans, no rusty boxes to cover. The Sifter box is always clean. Sifter Stove Polish is cheap. It costs 5 cents a box, will polish more stoves than three times its cost in any other polish. All dealers.

BASEBALL

The weather today was a trifle disappointing to those fans who were looking for a continuous performance by the good-weather man and who hoped to see tomorrow and Sunday show up like balmy June mornings, just ripe for fast ball games. The chill today had its effect on the ardor of both fans and players, encouraged though by the knowledge of the fact that tomorrow is another day and Sunday still another. Bert Dennis, of Greenville, Pa., and Walter Slear, of Elkhart, two prospective outfielders, reported last night and will be out for practice this afternoon and evening and will take a turn in the games tomorrow with the Owls and on Sunday with the Shamrocks.

The batting order for tomorrow's game, which, of course, will be subject to change and which will be alternated after the game commences, will be as follows according to present arrangements:

Blair, second base; Dennis, middle field; Belden, right field; Myers, first base; Plummer, left field; Murphy, third base; Hopke, short stop; catchers, Ostdeik, Arthur; pitchers in order named, Stout, Wagner, Curtis, Becker, Mason, Brown.

The other members of the reserve list will be given a work out in the game with the Shamrocks on Sunday.

The show of the men will to an extent govern the order for the next day. Meantime the work of the youngsters is being watched with a great deal of interest and the wiser ones have already picked out the members who will stay until the season has opened at least and some have almost ventured to predict the personnel of the regular team. The Sentinel is not indulging in pyrotechnics and the patrons of the individual players will probably find that all is not tickle that titters. That Captain Myers has gathered about him some most excellent base ball timber is most true, but a few weeks' practice and study will soon enable him to cull the sound sticks from the shaky ones and some surprises in the make-up will probably be experienced. It is certain that with Captain Myers' experience and his keen judgment he will not be likely to make any serious mistakes when he gets ready to separate the wethers from the ewes.

GOSSIP FROM DAYTON.

Central League News Interchange Special.

Dayton, O., April 10.—The majority of the Dayton players have reported and are out at the ball park every afternoon practicing. The local management is pleased with the speed exhibited by the youngsters and expects to have a fast team the coming season. The following have reported:

Catchers—George Piper, of Pittsburg; T. Livingston, of Cleveland; Fred Kossuch, of Alliance.

Pitchers—Clem Love, of Scio, O.; Frank Wales, of Toledo; Tom Hart and A. G. Myers, both of Mason, W. Va.; J. Bonnett, of Polk, Pa.; G. Beverly, of Columbus; Fay Philley, of Jackson, Mich., and Pat Millen, of Pittsburg.

Infielders—John Nugent, of Utica, N. Y.; Ed Havel, of Cleveland; Kid Grochow, of Adrian, Mich.; W. T. Foy, of Elkhart, Ind.

Outfielders—Mike Corbett, of Zanesville; D. Jones, of Columbus; George Cleve, of Cleveland; George Miller, captain.

Manager Youngman released Kid Morris and Kid Rannels, pitchers, and Jimmie Haney, who has been signed by the team, is disabled and cannot come for some time. He is at his home in Milwaukee, where he was hurt in an accident, his pitching arm being injured.

Piper, a catcher, was with the Wynesburg, W. Va., college team last season, and this is his first year as a professional. He is considered a wonder at that, and there is no fear expressed that he will not be able to make good. Livingston, another catcher, and Cleve, an outfielder, were recommended to the Dayton management by Manager Armor, of Cleveland. He considered them good men and states that they are plenty fast enough for a minor league team. Kossuch, besides being a catcher, is also a first baseman.

Bonnett, one of the pitchers, was with the Iron and Oil league last season, while Beverly, another pitcher, was signed for the Daytons by Bobby Quinn, of Columbus. Philley played with the Michigan state league in '02, and is said to be a good one, and Pat Mullen did good work as a soldier boy ball player while with the Fort Riley regular army team. He finished the season of '02 with Homestead, Pa.

Nugent played with Jamestown, N. Y., last year, and Havel with Philley in the Michigan league, Foy with the Jackson, Mich., team and all of the Dayton players are pretty well seasoned.

There seems to be an impression in Central league that the Daytons won't cut any ice this season, but Lander and Youngman think differently Youngman was twice a joint owner with Armor, now of Cleveland, of pennant winners in leagues of which the Dayton team was a member. Dayton never had a poor ball team. The public won't support a poor team, and no one knows this better than Bill Lander, who has lived here all his life and has been a fanatic ever since he wore dresses. He has been as careful as Youngman to pick out only the most promising material, and says positively that the Daytons will come pretty near finishing at the top of the heap.

The first game in the regular league season in Dayton will be with Anderson, opening up here, as in the other cities, on the 30th inst. The local grand stand will be renovated and fitted over anew, and various improvements will be made. The diamond while not considered exceptionally fast, is good and easy to play on. Visiting teams always liked the Dayton diamond. It is in better condition now than it has been at any time since base ball was played on it.

W. H. Maynes.

PICKUPS.

Ball players who want to go up against the real thing can get pointers by corresponding with Charlie Phelps, Frank Hill or Al Haddon at the head of the Newsboys' club. They have organized for the season and will tackle anything except an automobile.

The Shamrocks yesterday signed a contract to play with the Cleveland Reserves in this city May 24 and with Tiffin at Tiffin May 10. A practice game will be played on the Concordia grounds tomorrow afternoon which shows that the Shamrocks do not consider the Marion Owls in their class.

Stanley Arthur, of New Vienna, O., reported yesterday to do backstop work with the Fort Wayne team and is out for practice this afternoon. Arthur is well known and well liked in Fort Wayne, having been seen here often with the Toledo Interstate team. William Belden also got in and registered with the bunch at the St. Nicholas. He is from Cleveland and is a brother to Ira Belden, a former member of the Fort Wayne club and a popular one, too.

THOUGHTFUL COMPANY.

"Up in my city," said ex-Senator J. Sloat Fassett, of Elmira, at the Fifth Avenue hotel the other night, according to the New York Times, "we have a corporation more thoughtful of its employes than are most corporations. Frequently one of them gets a hand or an arm taken off, but instead of casting the men so maimed adrift the corporation provides places for them where men with but one hand can work satisfactorily. The one-armed men soon learn to profit to a certain extent by their misfortune. The men with right hands pair off with the men with left hands and in that way one pair of gloves, mittens, cuffs and such things does for both.

"But more practicable even than that is the sight of two such men at the theater. A man with a right hand left sits next to a man with a left hand also left, and when anything pleases them they turn instinctively toward each other, clap their remaining hands together and contribute more than would seem possible to the applause."

MRS. DOLBY'S TALKS

The Deacon Looks Over the Family Almanac and Says Nothing

[Copyright, 1903, by John R. Haskins.]

DEACON DOLBY had pulled off his boots, with a grunt of satisfaction as each boot came off, and taken a seat in the big rocking chair and begun to feel that there was no place like home, when Mrs. Dolby suspended her sewing for a moment to look up and ask:

"Deacon Dolby, what do you think of a man fifty years old and supposed to be a good man who will swear?"

The deacon felt a chill go up his back, and he picked up a family almanac lying on the table and pretended to be much interested in its contents while wondering if he could be the guilty man.

"It was last fall," continued Mrs. Dolby, "and I only heard of it the other day, but it's just the same as if it happened this forenoon. You was sitting on the fence by the barn when a tin peddler came along the road and stopped to talk with you. I don't know what sort of story he told you, but all at once you started to laugh, you threw up your arms and your feet to haw, haw, haw, and you went over backward into the barnyard. As soon as you found that your neck wasn't broken you got up and used language. It was awful language. It was such language that the Widow Skinner shivered as she heard it, and the tin peddler whipped up his horse and drove on. I want to know what you've got to say about it. Some wives would have left the house without asking a question, but I'm willing to hear your excuses."

The deacon didn't have any. He remembered that October morning perfectly well. The tin peddler had stopped to tell him the latest joke, and it was so funny that a fall backward had been the result. Just what he said after getting up was not so clear, but he believed that he had done justice to the occasion. Mrs. Dolby waited two minutes for his answer, but she waited in vain. There was an increase of severity in her tones as she continued:

"One night four weeks ago you came in from the barn all doubled up and said you had colic. I thought it very queer that anybody should have colic in winter, but I gave you pepper sass and other things and put you to bed, and you got over it. I let it go at colic, and you never told me different, but I have the truth at last. I just got it today from Mr. Simpkins' hired man. Deacon Dolby, you deceived your wife! You went behind the cow and twisted her tail to make her move up, and she kicked you in the stomach with both feet to once. Why didn't you say so when you came into the house? I know why, because, as you lay on the stable floor, you yelled for the hired man to get the pitchfork and knock the cow's head off, and your language drove the man out of the barn on the run."

Mrs. Dolby had slightly exaggerated, but the deacon set his jaw as he remembered the occasion. He also indulged in a grim smile as he recalled a little performance in the stable next day, but he didn't think it best to enter into any wordy explanations. He simply increased his interest in the almanac and tried to forget that he was not alone.

"It wasn't over two weeks ago," resumed Mrs. Dolby, "that you went over to the sawmill to see about some lumber. When you came home, I spoke about the way you was wearing your hat, but you didn't say nothing. That night I found a bump on your head as big as a hen's egg. No wonder you had to cock your hat over on one ear. I've waited and waited for you to explain how you got that bump, but you haven't done so. I know how it was—heard all about it yesterday, and I can tell you that some wives wouldn't stand it a minute. When you went to the mill, you found a lot of folks skating on the pond. Old as you are, with your knees as stiff as gate hinges, you borrowed a pair of skates and went on the ice to show off. You hadn't skated a rod before your feet went up, and you struck on your head. I ain't saying that was any crime, but there are over thirty people who will make oath that after you went down you swore like a pirate and offered to lick any one there with a hand tied behind you. Deacon, are you going to beg my pardon and promise never to do so again?"

The deacon's hand instinctively went up to the spot where the bump had done business for ten days, but he made no reply. Had he started out to do so he would simply have mixed things up, as his recollection was not clear as to what happened after he got the skates on. Mrs. Dolby kept her eyes on the back of his head while the old clock ticked a hundred times, and there were tears in her eyes as she shook her head and mused:

"I knew that no saw log had rolled over him and made that bump. And last week, only last Tuesday, he came home with his clothes almost torn off him and his face all scratched up and hinted around that one of Mr. Jacobs' steers had chased him through the woods. He was so lame that I milked the cow and brought in the wood myself that night, and I kept asking him if I shouldn't make him tea and toast. He never hinted that it was anything else but a steer, but Mrs. Barber was here this afternoon and told me all about it. He tried to slide down Golden hill on a board, and he run into a lot of blackberry bushes and a treetop. It was ten minutes before he could say anything, and then—and then"—

The deacon waited, with his heart beating at its normal rate.

"And then he got up and whooped and hollered and jumped up and down and—and"—

There was a long minute of silence, and then the deacon slowly looked around and found Mrs. Dolby nodding in sleep. He turned to his almanac and read on for five minutes and then got up and laid his hand on her shoulder and said:

"Wake up. It's time to go to bed."

"Wh-what did he do after he whooped and hollered?" she sleepily queried.

"Nothing, I guess."

"But there was more of it. Mrs. Barber said he—he"—

But the deacon led her to the bedroom door and then turned to wind up the clock and see the cat was put outdoors. There was a grin on his face, and he felt that he had got off easy.

M. QUAD.

NEGRO QUEEN'S NERVES.

Civilization is making way in Abyssinia. The latest innovation is—nerves, says the London Telegraph. These have been developed in Queen Taitu to a quite alarming extent, and when King Menelik complains, they murder their husbands or run away with another man, it is excused because they were afflicted with nerves." The latest exhibition of the nerves of the black queen was induced by the inauguration of the new railway. The emperor announced his intention of going and had all his best clothes brought out, including his choicest umbrella, when he was arrested in the midst of his preparations by his consort, who declared that she must go, too. To that the emperor agreed, knowing that it was useless to oppose her, when she suddenly gave a shriek and went into hysterics. It then transpired that she had no new gown and the negus had to telegraph to Paris at once.

Patterson sells the best dollar soft shirt in the city.

Remember your friends with a box of choice Cut Flowers from MISS FLICK.

Mrs. W. B. Nimmons and Prof. Allen, of Bluffton, are in the city, the former to visit friends and the latter to look after some business affairs.

It Was the Wrong Bird

The irascible gentleman had ordered a chicken. But when he got it he wasn't satisfied. Some people never are.

"Waiter," he yelled, "bring a charge of dynamite and a hatchet and an extra double steam power coke hammer. This chicken's got to be carved, even if it is made of harvegized steel."

The waiter was desolate.

"Very sorry, sir," he said, "but that always was a peculiar bird. It even objected to be killed, though we always do everything with the greatest of kindness. But this bird, sir, actually flew away, and we had to shoot it, sir—yes, shoot it! It flew on to the top of a house, and"—

"Say no more," said the irascible customer. "I see it all now. You shot at it and brought down the weathercock by mistake. John, my friend, all is forgiven."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Similarity.

"Can any of you fellows tell me," remarked the puzzle editor, "why trouble is like the banana?"

"Probably," replied the society editor, "because the worst of it is frequently on the inside."

"Or possibly," suggested the financial editor, "because the riper it gets the more disagreeable it is."

"You fellows make me tired," sighed the puzzle editor.

"Well, perhaps you can enlighten us," caustically rejoined the financial editor.

"Certainly; simply because it comes in bunches."—Colorado Springs Gazette.

A Fair Inference.

The woman was only about five feet tall, but very large in every other way. In fact, she had to hunt up a sofa in order to sit down with comfort.

The thoughtful man was observing her critically.

"Well?" suggested his companion inquiringly.

"I was thinking," returned the thoughtful man, "that if her mind conforms to her figure she must be a very broad minded woman."—Chicago Post.

Base Slander.

They chit chatted over the tea table, those girls. One was from Pittsburg and the other from New York. The game was to get acquainted.

"Don't you Pittsburg girls just love repartee?" asked the one from New York.

"Yes, it is good," returned the one from the city of wealth; "but, don't you know, I prefer oolong."—New York Tribune.

Understood.

Linzee—There's nothing I like better than hard work.

Morris—There's nothing you like better when somebody else is doing it.

Linzee—That's understood. I hope you didn't think I was such a fool as to like to do hard work myself, or any other kind, for that matter!—Boston Evening Transcript.

Hard Luck.

Weary Wraggs—Durn it! I've lost me code book, an' I can't tell wedder dat means shotgun or pie.—New York Journal.

How to Do It.

"I would like to find out how many idle men there are in town."

"Well, just start some laborers to digging a sewer."

"But they won't be idle."

"No, but every idle man in town will stand around and watch them."—Philadelphia Record.

So Candid!

Playwright—My new play was brought out last night. At the close of the first act there were loud and persistent calls for the author.

Simpleton—You don't say! To think they could be so vindictive as that!—Boston Evening Transcript.

Spoke From Experience.

Teacher—Give me a definition of "operable" and use the adjective in a sentence to illustrate.

Claude—"Operable," capable of being worked. Example, "My father is operable."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Perfect Dear.

Mildred—That English earl your sister married is a dear little fellow, isn't he?

Sadie—Dear? I should say so. Papa paid half a million for him.—Kansas City Journal.

This May Be True.

"Say, pa," queried little Johnny Bumperknickle, "what's a double chin."

"A conversation between your mother and grandmother, my son," replied the old man.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

An Expensive Roast.

"Now that you have at last killed a rabbit, I will prepare it myself."

"Oh, don't, dear; let the cook do it! Just think, the rabbit has cost me almost $50."—Fliegende Blatter.

THE BRIBERY INQUIRY.

St. Louis, April 10.—The grand jury investigation of alleged boodling in connection with baking powder legislation in the Missouri general assembly, was resumed today and a number of witnesses were examined. Among them were several state senators.

The Travelers And the Keg

One day as Two Travelers were passing along a highway in company they discovered a keg that had fallen from the wagon of some Carter without being missed.

"I was just wishing for a drink of cognac, and, behold, it is at hand!" exclaimed one.

"I was thinking of claret, and the gods have brought me gallons of it," added the other.

"You have only to look at the keg to know that it is cognac."

"And you have only to smell of it to be assured that it is claret."

"You certainly are a stupid man."

"And you are little short of a fool."

A minute later their language had become so abusive that they rushed forward and were engaged in lambasting each other when the Carter returned for his lost keg and bore it away. Having bestowed many blows and kicks, the combatants finally separated, and as a Peasant came out of his field the first appealed to him:

"My friend, will you not agree with me that the keg contained cognac?"

"He must surely agree with me that its contents was claret," added the second.

"My friends," replied the Peasant, "the keg contained neither cognac nor claret, but cider vinegar, as you could have soon learned, and you are not even now in possession of that."

Moral.—He who quarrels with his luck will end in having no luck at all.

Bird (as Popsnoozle keeps on firing)—Why don't that foolish man get an ax and chop down the tree? It would be simpler than to get his wood twig by twig.—Chicago News.

POPULAR COUPLE WILL LEAVE CITY

Mr. and Mrs. John Higgenbothan Will Return to Brooklyn to Reside.

HAVE AN EXCITING TIME

Some Girls Nearly Run Over by Train—Engineer Averts An Accident.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Higgenbothan will be sorry to learn that they have decided to give up their residence in Fort Wayne and return to their old home in Brooklyn, N. Y. Six weeks ago Mr. Higgenbothan's mother died and his father insists that John shall move back to Brooklyn and live with him. This Mr. and Mrs. Higgenbothan have decided to do. Mr. Higgenbothan has lived in this city nearly fifteen years. He came her with General Manager J. J. Wood and Foreman John Bauer, when those gentleman became connected with the Electric works. He has served as assistant foreman in one of the departments ever since.

Their Father is Dead.

General Foreman G. W. Smith and Luther K. Smith, of the Wabash shops, were in the city a short time this morning, but soon returned to Huntington, where they will remain until after the funeral of their father, A. C. Smith. Mr. Smith died at 6 o'clock last night, from catarrh of the stomach, with which he had been afflicted for some months. The deceased was 67 years old and was a well known and highly respected citizen of Huntington. He helped to build the Chicago and Erie railroad and was employed in the carpenter department up to the time he was taken sick.

Old-Time Locomotives.

The Columbia City Commercial says: "Three broken down and badly rusted engines were hauled through this city Tuesday afternoon from the east on the Pittsburg road, their destination being Hammond, Ind. They were ancient models and one in particular looked to be anywhere from 50 to 75 years old. The entire engine and the tender put together would not make as large a bulk as one of the tenders to a modern engine as now run on No. 39, and others. The boiler was dilapidated, showing the wear of years and rust. The number of this locomotive was 1254, and it formerly hauled trains over the Pittsburg and Reading railroad. It had only six small wheels under the engine, which would not make modern trucks for a box car. Parties at the local depot amused themselves by inspecting the quaint locomotives and arguing the probabilities of their age."

Case Was Continued.

Detective T. A. Wilkinson, of the Nickel Plate, was at South Chicago yesterday to attend the hearing of five young fellows arrested by Mr. Wilkinson on a charge of having stolen about twenty bushels of oats from a Nickel Plate car at Irondale. The quintet is composed of Fred Millis, James Douye, Louis Douye, Ed Braily and Pat MaGill, and Millis and MaGill have confessed. The case was continued until April 16, and while influential friends are using every effort to get the men clear, Detective Wilkinson says he has a sure case against the fellows for larceny.

Shop Officials Meet.

D. F. Crawford, superintendent of motive power of the Pennsylvania, has called some of his master mechanics and shop clerks to a meeting at his office. Among those who are participating in the meeting are Master Mechanic B. Fitzpatrick, of Fort Wayne; Master Mechanic J. Cullinan, of Columbus; Master Mechanic G. B. Fravel, of Chicago; Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of Fort Wayne; Shop Clerk H. Weschler, of Chicago, and Shop Clerk J. M. Winter, of Crestline.

Will Move Monday.

The carpenters who are putting up the supports for the line shafting in the remodelled Pittsburg machine shop will probably complete that work tomorrow or early Monday morning, when the removal of the lathes from that portion of the old building which is to be a part of the new shop will take place. The contractor is to be given full sway next week and there is much to do in the way of moving machinery before the way is cleared for him.

Knights Templar Trains.

The Pennsylvania will have two extra trains into this city next Wednesday for the accommodation of the Knights Templar and their friends. One train will start from Lima, Ohio, and the other will start from Plymouth, Ind., and each will take on passengers at all stations. These trains will leave on the outgoing trip late Wednesday night, at the close of the exercises at the Temple.

Almost an Accident.

The Lima Daily News tells of an exciting incident in that city, which came near being a horrible accident. As Pennesylvania passenger train 20 was passing through that city, Engineer Charles Eaton noticed Towerman William Shea waving his hands, and suspecting that something was wrong at the crossing, Mr. Eaton stopped hih train, with the pilot within a few feet of the crossing planks. As he did so a bevy of girls dashed out in front of his engine, from behind a passing caboose, on their way across the railway. The watchman figured that the caboose of the passing freight train would pass the girls an instant before the passenger train reached the crossing and he feared that a number of them would be killed or injured. The gates were down, but the girls had walked beneath them in their haste to get across the tracks, and as the passenger train was hid from view by the freight, they might have been run down had not Engineer Eaton stopped his train.

Steam Gauge Was Defective.

After a thorough investigation into the cause of the explosion of a Cincinnati Northern locomotive at Van Wert a few days ago, the railway officials have decided that the steam gauge was defective. While the engine was standing in her stall, her safety valve was open and steam was blowing off, though the steam gauge showed only 80 pounds pressure. Machinist Stultz climbed upon the engine to repair the valve, and it was then that the explosion occurred. It is now believed that some sediment had clogged the steam gauge pipe and that the engine boiler had a much greater steam pressure than was indicated.

Each Had an Eye Injured.

While breaking coal with the pick yesterday, Fireman A. A. Sullivan, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, had one of his eyes painfully injured by a piece of coal hitting it. Two or three years ago H. C. Elx, of the Pittsburg shops, got some pieces of steel in one of his eyes. A portion of the metal was removed, but not all, and the piece remaining is now causing him considerable trouble and threatens serious results unless it is removed. He has decided to submit to a surgical operation, which will be performed next Sunday. Dr. R. Parks White is attending both of these unfortunates.

Coke Shed Wrecked.

The coke shed at the rear of the Wabash car tinkers' shanty was pushed from its foundation and carried against the supports of the big water tank, breaking the ladder leading to the top of the tank and more or less demolishing the coke building. Some workmen had left a heavy plank lying near the track leading to the Kerr Murray works and this caught on the journal boxing of the switch engine which went down that track at 7 o'clock this morning and the other end of the plank caught the sill of the coke shed, with the result mentioned.

Good Friday at Shops.

While none of the shops are closed on account of this being Good Friday, many of them are working with greatly reduced forces. Some of the departments, and particularly the Bass 'smith shop, are badly crippled on account of absent workmen. At the railway shops the absentee lists are about three or four times the usual length, but all of the departments are running.

Making X-Ray Apparatus.

The Fort Wayne Electric works is building up quite a trade in the way of X-ray apparatus, using the Wagner patent. Dr. J. A. Lomas has just received one from that factory, which is said to be as fine as any in the country, and Dr. Maurice Rosenthal has placed an order for one.

George Gould Goes East.

Private car "Attalanta," carrying George J. Gould and his sons, was a part of Wabash train No. 2 this morning. Mr. Gould had been west, inspecting the Gould lines, and is now en route home.

Industrial Notes.

G. T. Sunley, a Pennsylvania yard conductor, is sick and off duty.

The employes of the Bass company received their monthly wages this morning.

The Wabash put in operation at noon yesterday its new switch and signal plant at Maumee, Ohio.

Machinist Thomas Blyth has returned from Lafayette, where he set up an engine in the Moniny mills.

A carload of electrical machinery, including a 4,000-light generator, left the Electric works this morning for Coraopolis, Pa.

William Henning and C. J. Ryan are new employes at the Fort Wayne Electric works. W. F. Stutz resigned a position at the works this morning.

Engineer J. W. Holcomb is in the railway hospital at Peru, suffering as a result of the explosion of his engine injector. A stream of hot water poured over Holcomb's face, arms and chest, scalding him severely.

James Donahue, painter at the Pittsburg shops, is off duty for the purpose of entertaining a friend from Chicago.

The Illinois Central on Tuesday issued a notice that the embargo on grain southbound had been raised.

The Boston and Albany will on May 1 advance the wages of freight handlers in Boston from $1.85 to $2 per day.

J. Didier, a carpenter at the Pittsburg shops, is off duty on account of an injured foot, the result of stepping upon a nail.

A train carrying a number of immigrants and running as a second No. 5, passed through the city over the Nickel Plate this morning.

An Erie engine got off the tracks on the Wabash crossing at Huntington yesterday and both roads were blocked an hour or two.

G. L. McCoy, machinist, who was injured in the Pennsylvania shops a few days ago, has gone east to visit with his parents until he is able to work.

A. V. Youts is in the city visiting relatives and friends. He is now employed on the Duluth and Iron Range road, with headquarters at Two Rivers, Minn.

L. F. Corcoran, trainmaster of the Toledo division of the Pennsylvania, and one of the oldest trainmasters on the road, is to be appointed division superintendent.

Nickel Plate Conductor B. A. Dent was taken sick in Stony Island yesterday and was compelled to abandon his run and come home on the passenger train this morning.

Chief Draughtsman Wm. Stephan and Assistant General Car Shop Foreman Frank Sweringen left for Pittsburg this morning upon business for the Pennsylvania.

G. C. Kinsman, superintendent of telegraph of the Wabash, with headquarters in Decatur, Ill., was in the city this morning, looking after affairs connected with his department.

Through passenger service is to be established between Toledo and Detroit by the Ann Arbor and Wabash, via Milan. The route has the same mileage as the Lake Shore.

Machinist John Dunn has returned from Monessen, Pa., where he had been engaged several weeks in setting up a Bass engine in the plant of the American Sheet Steel company.

Ed Challenger, formerly a clerk in the Pennsylvania offices, is looking after private business and greeting old friends today. Ed is now with the National Cash Register company, Dayton, Ohio.

The Baltimore and Ohio is receiving new engines on its contract for forty at the rate of four a week, and is also receiving new passenger coaches weekly preparatory to a heavy summer traffic.

It is but a few years ago that M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four, said he would not be satisfied until the Big Four was earning a million dollars a month. In March the lines earned over $1,750,000.

William R. McKeen, ex-president of the Vandalia, has returned from a stay of several months in California, in excellent health. Mr. McKeen was recently re-elected for the thirty-seventh time a director of the Terre Haute and Indianapolis.

Prof. William H. Holmes has resigned from the faculty of the Purdue university and will take a position with the Indianapolis Foundry and Machine company. Professor Holmes had charge of the foundry work at the university several years.

Bellevue Gazette: "J. S. Holly, who was recently promoted from freight to passenger conductor on the Nickel Plate, was in town today on a house-hunting expedition, and will move his family here as soon as he finds a suitable house."

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy has purchased 600 acres of land at Chicago along both sides of the Galena division, extending a distance of two miles, at a cost of $300,000. The purchase was made for the purpose of enlarging terminals.

Bert Keplinger is lying ill at the home of his father, Engineer J. A. Keplinger, of the Pittsburg. Bert is traveling salesman for Pidgeon, Turner & Co., the wholesale milliners, and was taken sick while out on the road Wednesday.

Pennsylvania enginemen, who were in the habit of replenishing their drinking water supply at the water station at Washington, Ohio, have been disappointed by the notice that the water from the purifying tanks is totally unfit for drinking purposes and they must get water for that purpose elsewhere.

Conductor Charles C. Plybon, of the Pittsburg, who left the city some time ago, ostensibly on account of failing health, surprised his friends a day or two ago by returning home, accompanied by a bride. The wedding took place at the home of the bride, in Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Plybon are residing at 2107 Lafayette street.

F. A. Charton, a tinner at the Pittsburg shops, had the skin and flesh stripped from the base of the second finger of his right hand yesterday by a piece of sheet iron falling upon his hand. The wound is very painful and will keep the unfortunate man from work for some time.

William F. Yergens, master mechanic of the western division of the Chicago and Erie road, has just put a passenger engine into service which was designed by himself, and the most important parts, such as valves, were adjusted by his own hands. W. S. Morris, superintendent of motive power of the Erie, inspected the engine and pronounced it perfect.

If necessity demands it, President Roosevelt could man a railroad train with members of his administration. The president is a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen; General Madden, third assistant postmaster general, is an engineer; Frank P. Sargent, commissioner general of immigraton, is a fireman; E. E. Clark, assistant secretary-elect of the department of commerce and labor, is a conductor, and General Wynne, first assistant postmaster general, is an expert telegraph operator.

RECIPE FOR SUCCESS.

Boys are constantly writing me for advice about how to succeed, and when I send them my receipt they say that I am dealing out commonplace generalities. Of course I am, but that's what the receipt calls for, and if a boy will take these commonplace generalities and knead them into his job, the mixture'll be cake.

Once a fellow's got the primary business virtues cemented into his character, he's safe to build on. But when a clerk crawls into the office in the morning like a sick setter pup, and leaps from his stool at night with the spring of a tiger, I'm a little afraid that if I sent him to take charge of a branch house he wouldn't always be around when customers were. He's the sort of a chap who could hold back the sun an hour every morning and have it gain two every afternoon if the Lord would give him the same discretionary powers that He gave Joshua. And I have noticed that he's the fellow who invariably take a timekeeper as an insult. He's pretty numerous in business offices; in fact, if the glance of the human eye could affect a clockface in the same way that a man's country cousins affect their city welcome, I should have to buy a new timepiece for the office every morning.—From "Letters From a Self-Made Merchant to His Son."

WOOL FROM PEAT.

The ingenious Germans are now making "wool" from turf fibres. It is said that recent improvements in the process of treating turf fibres have resulted in the production of a soft material, which can be spun as readily as the wool of the sheep, and which, besides possessing excellent absorption properties, is capable of being bleached and colored for use in the many different textile industries. Dusseldorf is the center of this new industry, and in that city cloth hats, rugs and many other things are being manufactured from turf fiber. The discovery, it is asserted, opens up a prospect of a new industry for Ireland. It is quite certain that she can provide as much turf, and of as excellent a quality, as Germany.—Greenock (Scotland) Telegraph.

SALESMAN IN RUNAWAY.

(Bluffton Banner.)

Harry Waterman, the well known Fort Wayne grocery salesman, was mixed up in a runaway along the Chicago and Erie tracks this morning. He was being driven to a small town when the horse, which was from one of the local livery barns, shied off into the ditch. The driver was thrown through a barbed wire fence an dthe horse was also tangled up in the wire. The buggy was torn to pieces and Harry was landed in the ditch clear across the road. He finished his trip in a badly demoralized condition while the driver spent some time in getting his team out of the ditch and patched together so that he could come back to the city.

The Place to Buy Your Coal

I am ready to take orders for your next winter's coal. Hard coal and Pokahontis. The summer time is the time to prepare your next winter's fuel for several reasons: You can buy it cheaper, and second, is you give the coal dealer time to put your coal in your bins, and third place, is you have got your coal in when winter comes and you don't have to run to the coal yard when the coal man is busy, that he cannot wait on you. AND ONE GREAT REASON IS YOU KNOW what the gas company has told you, that for next winter you must prepare other fuel, and don't be deceived and wait till cold weather comes and strikes come on—the way to avoid all trouble is to put your coal in when we can take care of you, and one other great point is when you buy in the summer you get better coal.

The rumor is among local agents that they are not allowed to solicit orders as there is going to be a great deal of early coal bought this year, as the people are not going to be fooled this time as they were last year. They are going to get their coal and they will know they have got it..

This demand is going to make coal scarce and high. Don't wait till coal goes, and you cannot get it, but buy when you can buy right and at the low prices. These prices hold good till the 1st of June. Call up the Wilding Coal yard. Phone No. 6265.

The latest explosive shell has the greater part of its interior filled with lead, which, when fired, is melted by a burning composition, so that when the shells bursts the molten lead is scattered to a considerable distance, and the smallest particle causes a nasty wound.

A Good Carpenter

is known by his chips, the old saw says. But anyone will tell you that an expert carpenter is known by his tools. We aim to keep only the very best tools that the market affords, and are also headquarters for up-to-date builders' hardware and the latest designs in art glass. If you have any intention of building a new residence or remodeling your old one during the coming season we would be more than pleased to show you our stock, and figure with you on whatever material you may require in our line.
